

Emergency Assistance for Seattle Employees 2017 Annual Report

EASE
Emergency Assistance
for Seattle Employees

EASE is a 100% volunteer-run 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to providing financial assistance to City of Seattle employees following a catastrophe or emergency.

2017 Financial Statement

Donations/Fundraising: $63,326.51

Assistance Granted:
$17,592.99

└ Administrative Costs: $407.63

Most EASE funds come from City of Seattle employee payroll donation. Thanks to our corporate sponsors, every dollar donated by an employee goes to an employee in need. Our sponsors maintain our Sympathy and Reserve Funds and cover our minimal administrative costs. Administrative costs totaled just $407.63 in 2017 which included the cost of our mailbox, bank charges and other administrative fees.

You have a co-worker who depended on food banks this year. You have a co-worker struggling through unpaid medical leave.

You can help.

Please consider donating $5 per paycheck to EASE. City employees can set up donations via Employee Self Service.

Thank You Sponsors

Thank you to Seattle's Bravest Charity (Seattle Firefighters) for a 2017 gift of $1,000.00. Thank you to PTE Local 17 for your 2017 donation of $3,000.00. Your continued support is deeply appreciated!

Special Recognition

Former Parks employee and Local 17 Shop Steward, Richard Frith, chose to pay it forward with a generous donation to EASE this past holiday season. In recognition of the generosity extended to him by fellow City employees following a bad accident in 2012, Richard donated $19,887.08 to EASE. Thank you Richard and best wishes for your continued recovery!

Thank You City Employees

City of Seattle employees, due to your generosity, $17,592.99 in direct financial assistance was provided to employees in crisis last year.

Nearly every employee emergency funded in 2017 was the result of unpaid medical leave. Costs that EASE funds covered included food, shelter, and medical bills not covered by insurance.

On behalf of the 2017 EASE recipients and the 2017 EASE Board, thank you for your continued support!
