

Photo: MOHAI

Seattle Fire Department

MOHAI
MUSEUM OF HISTORY & INDUSTRY

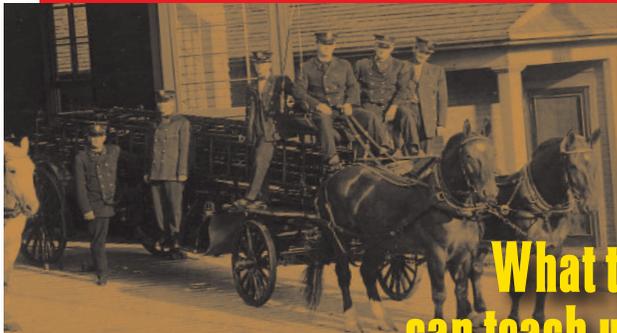

Fire Prevention Month • October Events 2009

The Seattle Fire Department & the Museum of History & Industry

host

Lessons of the Past & Present:

What the Great Seattle Fire can teach us about fire safety today

Friday, October 2, 2009 • 10AM - 1PM

- Tour antique fire trucks
- Talk with firefighters and learn about their jobs today
- Arson dog demonstrations (10:30, 11:00, 11:30)
- Firefighter Story Times (10:30, 11:00, 11:30)
- Fire safety activities for kids
- Seattle Fire Department history table
- Tour the Great Seattle Fire exhibit (Museum admission fees apply)

Firefighter Story Times at The Seattle Public Library

 The Seattle Public Library

Firefighters read fire safety stories to preschoolers at local library branches throughout the month.

Thursday, October 1 • 10:30 AM
Central Library

Thursday, October 15
Lake City Branch 10:30 AM
Fremont Branch 11:00 AM

Friday, October 2 • 10:00 AM
Museum of History & Industry

Wednesday, October 21 • 11:30 AM
Southwest Branch

Wednesday, October 7 • 10:30 AM
Capitol Hill Branch

Thursday, October 22 • 10:30 AM
Douglass-Truth Branch

Thursday, October 8 • 10:30 AM
University Branch

Thursday, October 29
Rainier Beach Branch 10:30 AM
Greenwood Branch 10:30 AM

Wednesday, October 14 • 3:00 PM
High Point Branch

Elementary Classroom Program

Cracking the History Code: Lessons of the Great Seattle Fire

Offered throughout the month of October
Facilitated by museum educators and the Seattle Fire Department

To register: www.seattlehistory.org

