

Coffee Hours at the Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens

Central Building
810 3rd Avenue
(between Columbia & Marion)
4th Floor Boardroom

All coffee hours are 10:00 to 11:00 a.m.

Thursday, August 21

Special Guest: Don Jordan, Seattle Animal Shelter

Seattle Animal Shelter Executive Director Don Jordan will discuss the role of the shelter in licensing pets; providing low-cost spay/neuter services; solving nuisance animal problems; preventing animal cruelty; and saving and adopting out cats, dogs, hamsters, gerbils, rabbits, guinea pigs, rats and mice. Learn about volunteer opportunities such as foster-care and rehabilitation of sick and immature dogs and cats, off-site dog walking, Get Fit with Fido, pet therapy, and more!

Thursday, September 18

Special Guest: Susan Shannon, Office of Economic Development

Director Susan Shannon will tell you how the Office of Economic Development maximizes Seattle's potential as a thriving hub for businesses and provides economic opportunity for all. The office helps to create jobs in a diverse array of industry sectors and revitalize Seattle's distinctive and diverse neighborhood business districts. Workforce development initiatives help meet the needs of low-income job seekers and employers. Come discuss what's happening in your neighborhood!

Future coffee hour dates:

Thursday, October 16 (Julie Nelson, Office for Civil Rights) & Thursday, November 20 (Terri Kimball, Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault Prevention Office); dates and speakers subject to change.

For Metro Rider Information, call (206) 553-3000.

For more information, contact the Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens at (206) 684-0500 or seniors@seattle.gov

City of Seattle

Gregory J. Nickels, Mayor

Human Services Department
Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens