

Climate Wise Forum

Northwest Industry Network

“Turning Energy Efficiency and Environmental Performance into a Corporate Asset”

Presented by Seattle City Light

Sponsored by Seattle Center

Monday, October 23, 2000

8:30 a.m. to 12 noon

Seattle Center - Rainier Room

AGENDA

- 8:30 a.m. Coffee and Registration
- 9:00 Welcome - Jean Shaffer, Manager of City Light Commercial/Industrial Energy Management Services, Seattle City Light
- 9:10 Climate Wise Program Update - Jack Brautigam, Program Manager
- 9:25 Keynote: Climate Change Science and Impacts - Dr. Richard Gammon, University of Washington Professor of Chemistry and Oceanography, and Adjunct Professor of Atmospheric Sciences
- 10:00 Break
- 10:15 Case Studies: Corporate Environmental Performance & Results
10:15 Associated Grocers – Ray Gooding, Facility Manager
10:30 Seattle Center Facilities – Liz Bukis, Project Manager
- 10:50 Peer Exchange Breakout Sessions (Topics to be announced) – Facilitated by WA Department of Ecology, Business & Industry Resource Venture, Climate Solutions, and others.
- 11:40 Recognition Ceremony - Heidi Wills, Chair of Seattle City Council Energy and Environmental Policy Committee
- 11:55 Closing Remarks
- 12:00 noon Tour of Seattle Center Facilities (optional)

Register to Seattle City Light

Phone: (206) 684-3254 ~ Fax: (206) 684-3682
www.cityofseattle.net/light/conserves/business/

“All waste is lost profit. Pollution and waste are things we have paid for but cannot sell.”

Peter Coors, CEO, Coors Brewing Company, on why Climate Wise is important to Coors