Electrical Relocations

This graphic is a general representation that illustrates the electrical utilities that need to relocate prior to light rail construction.

- Overhead electrical lines in some areas will be relocated to provide safe clearance from train and station.
- Some underground electrical duct banks will be relocated.
- 5-inch electrical duct

Future Light Rail tracks