SHARING WHAT WE KNOW

A Gathering at Hozomeen

SEPTEMBER 12 - 13, 2009

The Skagit Environmental Endowment Commission

invites you to join members of Washington and British Columbia Indigenous Nations, archeologists, anthropologists, and other interested people at Hozomeen. Come experience this sharing of knowledge and stories honoring the long history of indigenous life within the Upper Skagit Watershed.

This two day, free event at International Point, will include demonstrations of traditional activities, tours on Ross Lake, interpretive walks, displays, speaker presentations, story-telling and celebration.
