

2012 Civic Partners

The Civic Partners program awards funding to a full spectrum of Seattle arts, heritage and cultural organizations – ranging from established organizations to small and emerging groups. Funding supports organizations' core programs and operations, aids in planning and attracting other supporters, and helps underwrite public access to a wide variety of quality arts and cultural opportunities.

Community Partners

Nine of the 137 funded organizations are designated community partners, which are defined as arts service organizations that serve and enhance the capacity of artists and arts groups.
