

Comments received via <http://www.seattle.gov/municipaljail/questions.htm>
For September 3, 2008

Name: Gale Shinozaki

City: Seattle

Neighborhood: N/A

The jail should be adjacent or attached to the Municipal Court. Transportation costs and other logistics will be a nightmare getting defendants to and from the Court. As a former bailiff at King County Superior Court, getting defendants to their hearings in the Courtroom was subject to so many different factors, that adding the transportation distance issue would be one more obstacle for providing efficient jail service.