This comment will end with a question mark, but it is a rhetorical question. Why in the hell is it that every gawdamn time there is a generally considered undesirable occupancy that needs to be built, that South Park winds up on the short list??!! Sometimes we, in South Park, feel like we're under attack from our own elected officials. Put the jail somewhere else. How about up north!

Hello, and thank you for providing this forum. I do have to say that I would not want to see a jail put in near South Park. With an already "bad" reputation, higher than average crime and gang activity and other issues, the last thing this neighborhood needs is one more strike against it. Neighbors here are trying to make it a good place to live, and raise children. Having a jail in the area would make this less desirable to families. Again, after all we have going against us, why would we want one more negative? Thank you, Raina Anderson on Henderson

This site is far too close to a residential area and several schools. BAD CHOICE!
