S06108	Northwest	Lake Union	Eskelin	Literacy Source Reading Tools for Life	Literacy Source	No	Yes	$11,343	$7,944
--------	-----------	------------	---------	--	-----------------	----	-----	----------	---------

Description: Literacy Source will purchase new recording equipment and multi-leveled adult high interest books to start a pilot project Reading Tools for Life. This new reading program will help native and non-native English speaking adult learners improve their ability to read community materials and resources through measured reading skills development.

CMTY BLDG: Interaction of teaching volunteers with clients, recruitment of students in literacy speakers bureau. Outcomes include the pilot reading program that will enable new adult readers to be better connected to the community through written information

S06109	Northwest	Lake Union	Eskelin	Fremont Abbey Arts Center - Programming Start-up and Evaluation	Artwerks Fremont	No	No	$13,240	$14,900
--------	-----------	------------	---------	---	------------------	----	----	----------	----------

Description: This project will launch the Fremont Abbey Arts Center (TFA) as Fremont's only nonprofit, multi-disciplinary community arts center. Prior to a full programmatic launch in the winter of 2007, TFA will survey the Fremont community and then design, conduct and evaluate a series of community arts programs for all ages, in partnership with the Fremont Arts Council and the greater Fremont community.

Community Building Elements: Innovative "barn raising" to simultaneously involve community in arts programming survey, test events, and programs will build stronger community through work groups. Outcomes: Survey summary, arts events, and programs.

S06110	Southwest	Southwest	Moreno	Pelly Place Ravine Restoration	Pelly Place Action Committee	No	No	$31,145 *	$15,000
--------	-----------	-----------	--------	--------------------------------	------------------------------	----	----	------------	----------

Description: This project will return Pelly Place Ravine to its natural state by removing invasive vegetation and restoring the original creek banks. This revitalization would provide a unique natural area for the community and be a key step in providing a series of interconnecting trails between adjacent green spaces in the Morgan Junction neighborhood.

CMTY BLDG: Youth from 4 age groups and adults from many ethnic backgrounds will participate together to revitalize the ravine and production of the living history documentary will build intergenerational respect and stronger bonds. OUTCOMES: Removal of invasives and trash, restoration of native plants, signage, creation of multimedia presentation with photos, audio tapes, slides, video tapes, and promotional materials to be viewed at 2 schools.
