1.3.1 Application of this Rule

- A. The provisions of this Rule apply to regularly appointed employees in the classified service.
- B. This Rule does not apply to employees who are exempted by state law, the City Charter or SMC Chapter 4.13 from compliance with the Personnel Rules or SMC Chapter 4.04 related to selection, discipline, termination or appeals of personnel actions to the Civil Service Commission.
- C. The provisions of this subchapter shall be applied to employees of the Seattle Municipal Court except where they conflict with any policy promulgated by the Court and/or General Court Rule 29.

1.3.2 Order of Severity of Disciplinary Action

- A. In order of increasing severity, an appointing authority or designated management representative may take the following disciplinary actions against an employee for misconduct or poor work performance:
 - 1. A verbal warning, which shall be accompanied by a notation in the employee's personnel file. A verbal warning is appropriate only when the supervisor determines that there are sufficient mitigating factors related to the employee's conduct or performance that a written reprimand suspension, demotion or discharge is unwarranted.
 - 2. A written reprimand, a copy of which must be placed in the employee's personnel file. A written reprimand is appropriate only when the supervisor determines that there are sufficient mitigating factors related to the employee's conduct or performance that suspension, demotion or discharge is unwarranted.

- B. In order of increasing severity, the disciplinary actions which a supervisor may recommend and the appointing authority may approve against an employee include:
1. Suspension up to 30 calendar days.
 - a) Salaried employees shall be suspended in minimum increments of one workweek, except that suspensions for major safety violations may be imposed for at least 1 workday but less than 1 workweek.
 2. Demotion.
 - a) The appointing authority may demote an employee to a vacant position in a lower-paying classification or title in the same employing unit for disciplinary reasons. The employee must meet the minimum qualifications for the lower-paying classification or title. An employee who is demoted shall lose all rights to the higher class.
 3. Discharge.
- C. The disciplinary action imposed depends upon the seriousness of the employee's offense and such other considerations as the appointing authority or designated management representative deems relevant. In the absence of mitigating circumstances, a verbal warning or a written reprimand shall not be given for a major disciplinary offense.
- D. A regular employee may be suspended, demoted or discharged only for justifiable cause. This standard requires that:
1. The employee was informed of or reasonably should have known the consequences of his or her conduct;
 2. The rule, policy or procedure the employee has violated is reasonably related to the employing unit's safe and efficient operations;
 3. A fair and objective investigation produced evidence of the employee's violation of the rule, policy or procedure;
 4. The rule, policy or procedure and penalties for the violation thereof are applied consistently; and
 5. The suspension or discharge is reasonably related to the seriousness of the employee's conduct and his or her previous disciplinary history.
- E. The appointing authority may suspend, demote or discharge a probationary employee without just cause. A written statement of any such action shall be provided to the Seattle Human Resources Director and the Civil Service Commission.

1.3.3 Major Disciplinary Offenses

- A. The following is a nonexclusive list of major disciplinary offenses where a verbal warning or written reprimand will not be appropriate in the absence of mitigating circumstances:
1. Committing an act of workplace violence, including but not limited to verbal assault, threatening behavior or physical assault occurring in or arising from the workplace;

2. Testing positive for or being impaired or affected by alcohol or other controlled or illegal substance during working hours;
 3. Possession or sale of alcohol for use in the workplace or during working hours;
 4. Possession without a lawful prescription for or sale of a controlled or illegal substance in the workplace or during working hours.
 5. Reporting to work while taking a lawfully prescribed controlled substance or over-the-counter medication without obtaining a recommendation in writing from a health care provider, if the substance could affect the employee's ability to work safely;
 6. Use of City time, equipment or facilities for private gain or other non-City purpose;
 7. Falsifying or destroying the business records of the employer at any time or place, without authorization;
 8. Knowingly making a false statement on an application for employment or falsifying an employment-related examination document;
 9. Intentional damage to or theft of the property of the City, another employee, or others;
 10. Carrying or otherwise possessing firearms or any type of dangerous weapon and/or ammunition or similar devices or materials in the course of employment or on City property, except as authorized by the appointing authority;
 11. Making a bribe, accepting a bribe, or soliciting a bribe;
 12. Unauthorized absence;
 13. Endangering the safety of, or causing injury to, the person or property of another through negligence or intentional failure to follow policies or procedures;
 14. Conviction of any felony or misdemeanor crime or release from imprisonment for such conviction within the last 10 years when such conviction is work-related or may impair the employee's ability to perform his or her job duties;
 15. A knowing or intentional violation of the City Code of Ethics or other ordinances, the Personnel Rules, or the employing unit's adopted policies, procedures and workplace expectations;
 16. Acts of harassment or acts of discrimination that are prohibited by federal, state or local laws, or a failure to fulfill a responsibility to report incidents of harassment or discrimination to an appropriate City management representative;
 17. Acts of retaliation against City employees or members of the public.
 18. Other offenses of parallel gravity.
- B. In determining the level of discipline to impose, the appointing authority or designated management representative shall consider factors that he or she deems relevant to the employee and his or her offense, including but not necessarily limited to:
1. The employee's employment history, including any previously imposed disciplinary actions;

2. The extent of injury, damage or disruption caused by the employee's offense;
3. The employee's intent; and
4. Whether the offense constituted a breach of fiduciary responsibility or of the public trust.

1.3.4 Reassignment During Investigation

- A. While investigating an employee's alleged misconduct the appointing authority may remove the employee or other employees who are the cause of or otherwise significantly affected by such investigation from the workplace. The employee(s) may be temporarily reassigned to another work unit, or may be placed on administrative reassignment.
- B. An employee who is reassigned to another work unit pending the outcome of an investigation shall not have his or her pay rate reduced as a result of such reassignment.
- C. The appointing authority shall place an employee on paid administrative reassignment only when he or she determines that the employee's absence from the workplace is in the best business interest of the employing unit and there is no workplace to which the employee may be reassigned.

1.3.5 Pre-Disciplinary Hearing

- A. Prior to suspending, demoting or discharging a regular employee, the appointing authority shall conduct a pre-disciplinary hearing to permit the employee to respond to the charges made against him or her.
 1. The appointing authority shall provide the employee with oral or written notice of the charges made against him or her, an explanation of the evidence and the disciplinary action contemplated, and a reasonable opportunity for the employee to present an account of his or her conduct or performance.
 2. Upon receipt of a notice of recommended disciplinary action, an employee may choose to respond verbally or in writing. If the employee chooses to respond verbally, the appointing authority shall schedule a pre-disciplinary hearing.
 3. An employee may have a representative accompany him or her to a pre-disciplinary hearing. However, the pre-disciplinary hearing is not an evidentiary hearing, nor will the employee or his or her representative be permitted to cross-examine witnesses.
- B. Following his or her evaluation of the information presented by the employee, the appointing authority shall determine whether to impose or modify the disciplinary action contemplated against the employee.

1.3.6 Right of Appeal

- A. A written notification signed by the appointing authority of a suspension, demotion or discharge shall be delivered to the affected employee not later than 1 working day after the action becomes effective. The notification shall include the reason for the action taken. In the case of a regular employee, the notification shall also include a description of the employee's rights for appeal.
 - 1. In order to appeal the disciplinary action imposed, the employee must file a grievance provided by Personnel Rule 1.4 within 20 calendar days of the decision to impose discipline by the appointing authority.
 - 2. An employee who has exhausted the Employee Grievance Procedure under Personnel Rule 1.4 and remains dissatisfied with the outcome may file an appeal with the Civil Service Commission.
- B. A copy of the written notification to the employee shall be provided to the Civil Service Commission and to the Seattle Human Resources Director concurrent with or prior to the effective date of the disciplinary action.
- C. An employee may grieve a verbal warning or written reprimand using the Employee Grievance Procedure provided in Personnel Rule 1.4. Verbal warnings and written reprimands may not be appealed to the Civil Service Commission.
