

Puget Sound Area Community Technology Access Centers

These sites, listed by neighborhood, provide community access to computers, training, and other information technology services for free or at low cost. Most sites offer open lab time and many are available for group programs. Course offerings vary so check with an individual site for up to date information and use requirements.

This information and more detail is available at seattle.gov/tech/techmap, or call (206) 684-0600 or email at communitytechnology@seattle.gov.
