

Detour Route During Airport Way South Viaduct Closure

Airport Way South Viaduct Over Argo Railroad Yard Rehabilitation Project

Airport Way South Viaduct Closure

The Seattle Department of Transportation (SDOT) is replacing the north and south approaches of the Airport Way South Viaduct as part of the City's Bridging the Gap program. Beginning in June 2011, the viaduct will be closed to all traffic for 12-14 months. During construction cyclists will be detoured to 1st Avenue South via South Lander Street and South Lucille Street.
