

CarFreeDays

On Sunday, August 31, from 3 p.m. until 6 p.m., a route leading from Genesee Park to 38th Avenue S and Alaska, down Rainier Avenue S through Columbia and Hillman City neighborhoods (see map) is opening up to pedestrians and bicyclists as part of

Mayor Greg Nickels' campaign to "Give Your Car the Summer Off."

The event is a chance to see how livable the city is when people drive less.

Car Free Days are here.

What does that mean for you as a business?

- An opportunity to connect with your neighbors and attract new customers
- A chance to creatively showcase your products, or services
- A way to support the fight against global warming

Parking will be restricted from 1 to 6 p.m.

Consider scheduling deliveries and pick-ups on Saturday, or before noon on the Car Free Day Sunday.

From 3 to 6:00 p.m. Metro bus route 7 is being detoured at Alaska and Orcas to Martin Luther King Way.

You may use the sidewalk, or street space. However, if you interested in serving alcohol or food please observe WA State Alcohol Beverage and King County Board of Health codes and obtain necessary permits.

To make sure everyone enjoys Car Free Days leave at least four feet of sidewalk space for wheelchair access and if possible set tables close to the curb/in the planting strip.

If you are having a street sale instead of a sidewalk sale, please keep displays next to the sidewalk curb to ensure there is a path for emergency, disabled and local access.

Ideas for participating

- Notify your clients and customers ahead of time and invite them to participate in the festivities.
- Give product demonstrations, hold a class outdoors, or host a book reading.
- Consider a joint event with a nearby business, or local group.
