

Linden Avenue North: The Street is Complete!

You're Invited Saturday, July 13, 2013 10 am - noon

In front of Bitter Lake Community Center
13035 Linden Avenue N, Seattle, WA 98133

Please join Mayor Mike McGinn and the Seattle Department of Transportation for a community event celebrating the completion of Linden Avenue N construction. Linden Avenue N between N 128th and 145th streets was developed into a neighborhood-friendly corridor with:

- The City's first urban cycle track, completing a missing link of the Interurban Trail
- A new crosswalk and flashing beacon with infrared detection
- Bio-retention swales implementing green stormwater codes to the maximum extent
- A re-designed roadway that calms traffic and organizes parking
- All LED lighting – the first SDOT residential corridor project to do this
- New sidewalks, pedestrian railings, landscaping, street lighting and more!

Questions? Contact: LeAnne Nelson, Project Communications Lead, LeAnne.Nelson@seattle.gov or (206)-684-3897

Expect family fun and neighborhood cheer...
and the first 200 people will receive a raffle ticket for area gift certificates!

Linden Avenue North: The Street is Complete! You're Invited Saturday, July 13, 2013 10 am - noon

In front of Bitter Lake Community Center
13035 Linden Avenue N, Seattle, WA 98133

Please join Mayor Mike McGinn and the Seattle Department of Transportation for a community event celebrating the completion of Linden Avenue N construction. Linden Avenue N between N 128th and 145th streets was developed into a neighborhood-friendly corridor with:

- The City's first urban cycle track, completing a missing link of the Interurban Trail
- A new crosswalk and flashing beacon with infrared detection
- Bio-retention swales implementing green stormwater codes to the maximum extent
- A re-designed roadway that calms traffic and organizes parking
- All LED lighting – the first SDOT residential corridor project to do this
- New sidewalks, pedestrian railings, landscaping, street lighting and more!

Questions? Contact: LeAnne Nelson, Project Communications Lead, LeAnne.Nelson@seattle.gov or (206)-684-3897

Expect family fun and neighborhood cheer...
and the first 200 people will receive a raffle ticket for area gift certificates!

