

Seattle Police Officer Timothy Brenton
Memorial Procession Route
Friday, November 6, 2009
9 a.m. - Noon

Start:
Husky Stadium
Parking Lot E-1

End:
Memorial Service site
at Key Arena

The memorial procession will use the following route:

- South on Montlake Blvd NE/24th Ave E/23rd Ave E to E Madison St
- West on E Madison St to E Pine St
- West on E Pine St to Broadway
- North on Broadway to E Denny Way
- West on E Denny Way to 1st Ave N
- North on 1st Ave N to Mercer St

During the procession, which is expected to last from 9:00 a.m. to noon, other traffic will not be allowed on the route and will not be allowed to cross it. The Seattle Department of Transportation advises travelers to expect severe congestion near its path, especially as mourners are also anticipated along its course. Parking will not be allowed along the route and temporary "No Parking" signs will be employed. Staging will begin in the E-1 parking lot (north of Husky Stadium on Montlake Blvd NE) beginning at approximately 8:00 a.m.

The public memorial service at Key Arena will begin at 1:00 p.m., with doors opening at 11:00 a.m. No formal procession is planned after the ceremony. All questions concerning the procession route and traffic impacts should be directed to the Seattle Department of Transportation via 684-ROAD.