

NE Ravenna Blvd Protected Bike Lane Project

Open House
Emily Ehlers & Dawn Schellenberg
April 7, 2015

SDOT's mission & vision

Mission: delivering a high-quality transportation system for Seattle

Vision: connected people, places, and products

SDOT's 5 core values

Create a city that is:

Agenda

- City's safety vision
- Bicycle Master Plan
- Traffic data
- Proposed improvements
- Project schedule

Vision Zero

Zero traffic fatalities or serious injuries by 2030

www.seattle.gov/visionzero

Seattle's bicycle vision

Create a citywide network making riding a bike a comfortable part of daily life for people of all ages and abilities

Recommendations from Seattle's Bicycle Master Plan

Protected bike lanes

Roosevelt Way NE between University Bridge and NE 45th St

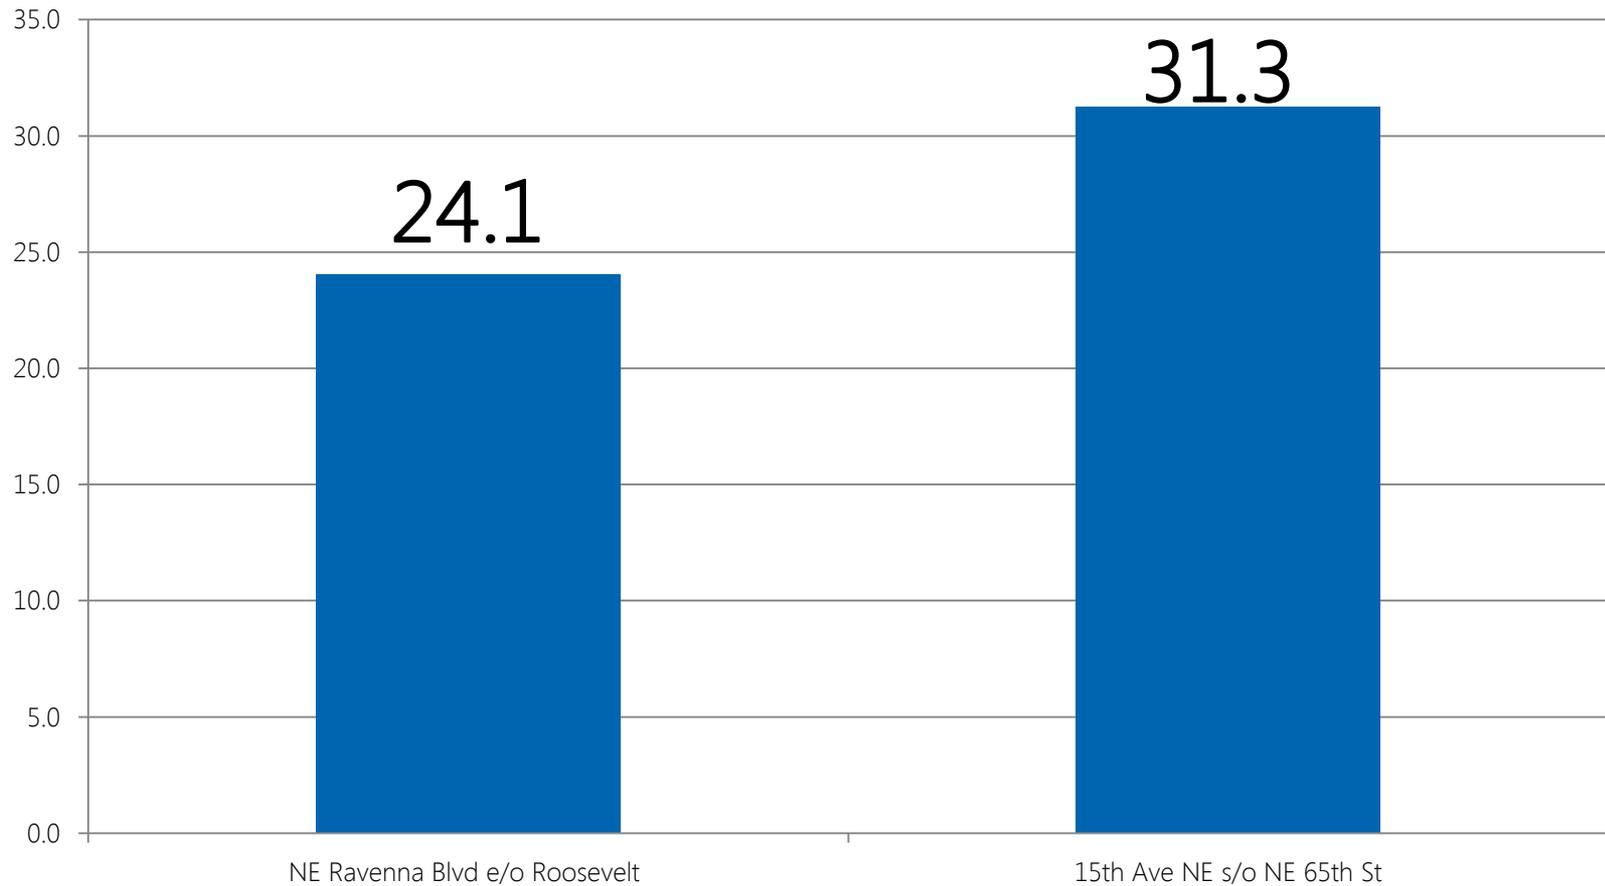

Physically separate from moving vehicles and distinct from pedestrian walkways

Safety (2011 - 2014)

Speeds along the corridor

85th % Speed (mph)

Vehicle volumes along the corridor

Proposed improvements

NE Ravenna Blvd

Existing street view

NE Ravenna Blvd: Brooklyn Ave NE and University Way NE

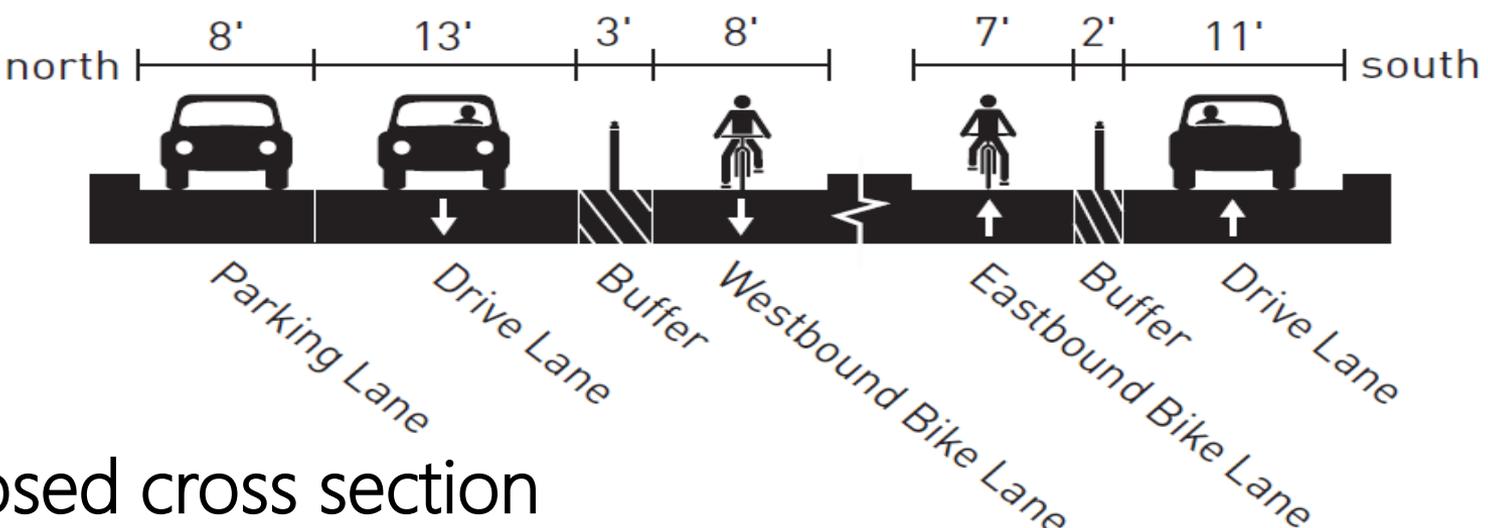

Existing street view

NE Ravenna Blvd: Brooklyn Ave NE and University Way NE

Existing cross section

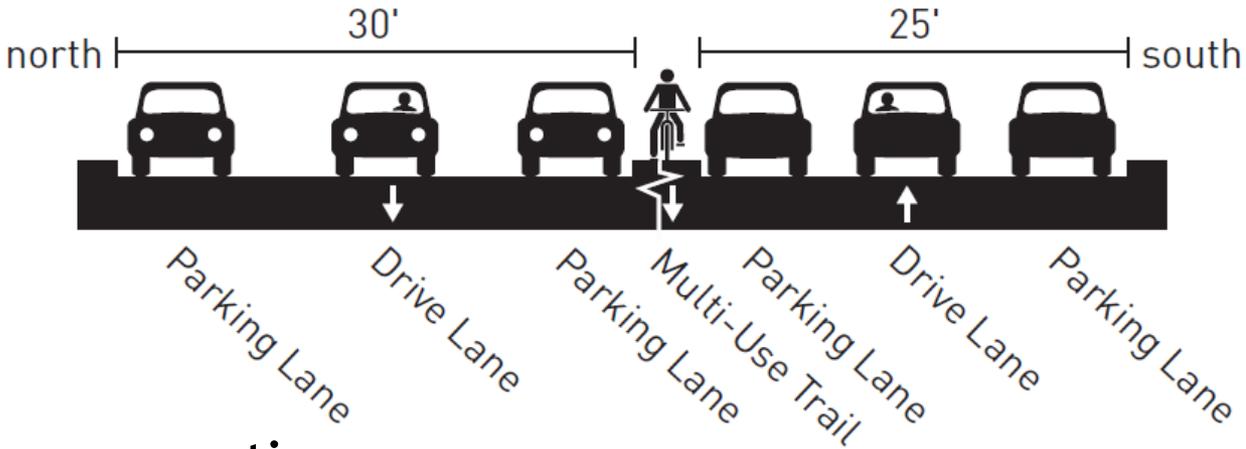

Proposed cross section

NE Ravenna Blvd: University Way NE to 15th Ave NE

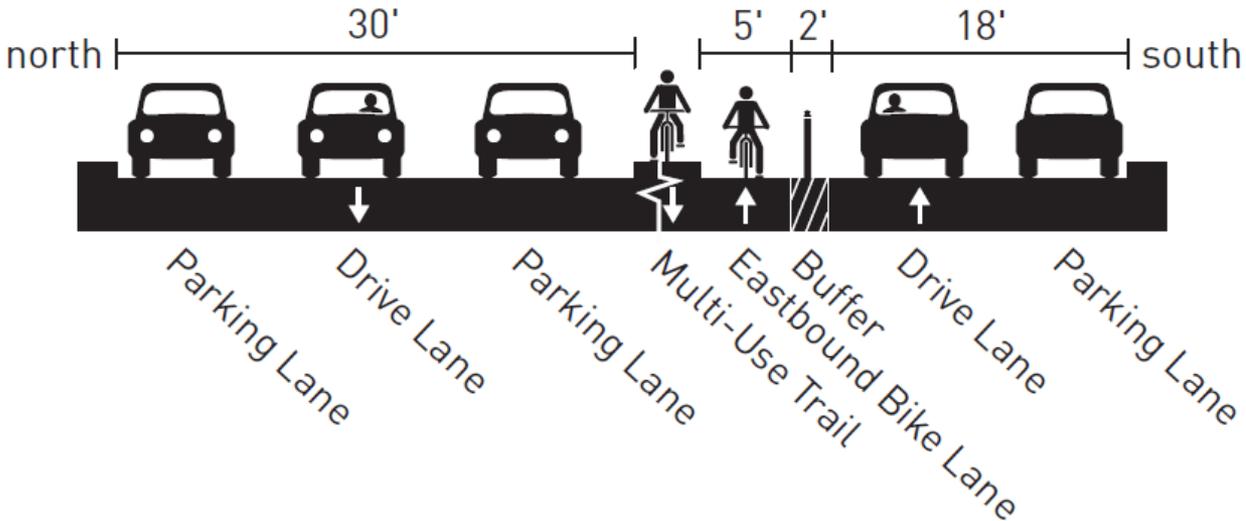

Existing street view

NE Ravenna Blvd: University Way NE to 15th Ave NE

Existing cross section

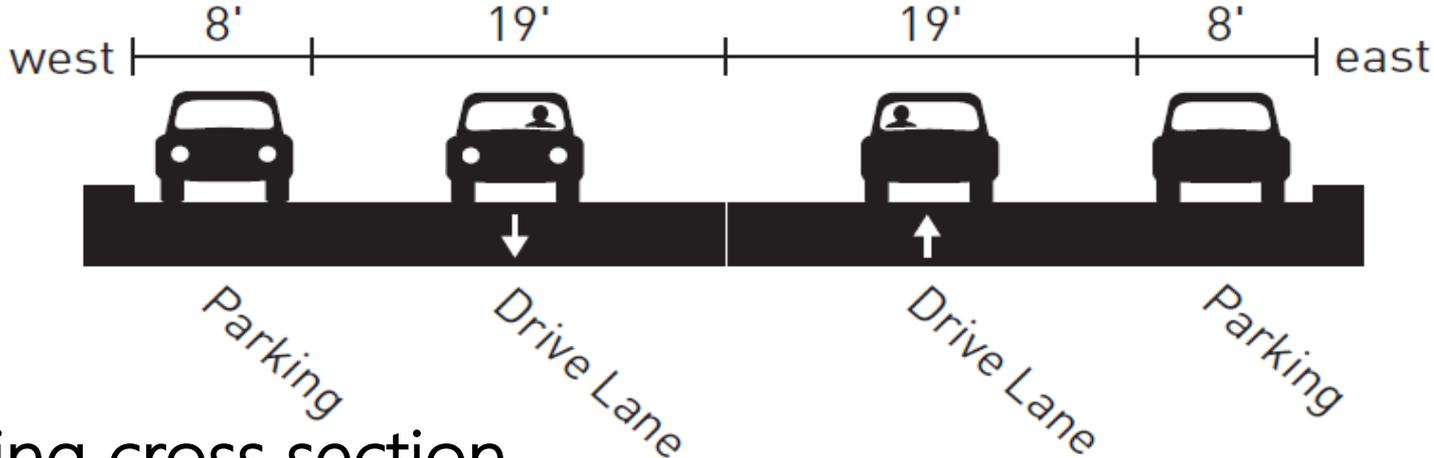

Proposed cross section

Cowen Pl NE

Existing street view

Cowen PI NE

Existing cross section

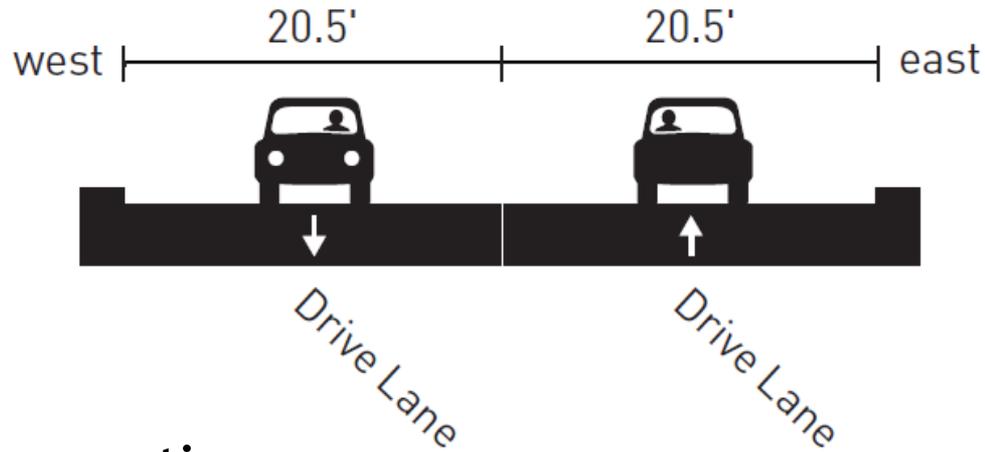

Proposed cross section

Cowen Park Bridge

Existing street view

Cowen Park Bridge

Existing cross section

Proposed cross section

NE 62nd St

Existing street view

Proposed street view

Schedule

Date	Next steps
April	Community open house
Feb - April	Stakeholder briefings
April – May	Design
Spring/Summer	Implementation
2016	Evaluation

Questions?

Emily.ehlers@seattle.gov | (206) 684-8264

<http://www.seattle.gov/transportation/ravennapbl.htm>

<http://www.seattle.gov/transportation>

