To avoid commuter traffic and congestion on the Spokane Street Viaduct, there are three ground-level routes connecting Seattle freeways with industries and port terminals:

- S Atlantic Street and E Marginal Way S
- S Michigan Street and E Marginal Way S
- W Marginal Way S and First Avenue S Bridge

Green and white "Truck Route" signs are posted along the routes to guide you.
Seattle Linking Freeways with Port Terminals and Industries

To avoid commuter traffic and congestion on the Spokane Street Viaduct, there are three ground-level routes connecting Seattle freeways with industries and port terminals:

- S Atlantic Street and E Marginal Way S
- S Michigan Street and E Marginal Way S
- W Marginal Way S and First Avenue S Bridge

See the map inside. Green and white “Truck Route” signs are posted along the routes to guide you.

Permits and information

- Truck Traffic Permits, (206) 684-5086
  Permits for trucks over 30 feet in length to drive through downtown Seattle
  Reserved parking on a street where there are parking meters or pay stations, for loading and unloading or construction only
  Over Legal load permits

- Commercial Vehicle Load Zones, (206) 684-5103
  Permits and information
  Traffic cameras
  www.seattle.gov/trafficcams

General information
(206) 684-7023 (206) 684-ROAD)
Information for truckers and links to other Web sites:
www.seattle.gov/transportation/freight.htm

For Permits and information.
(206) 684-5086
Permits and information
Traffic cameras
www.seattle.gov/trafficcams

Triazaーズマサアリカッドウコードワニンパンドリモニスレテナス

Seattle Municipal Tower, 37th Floor
Seattle, Washington 98124-4996
www.seattle.gov/transportation/freight.htm

General information
(206) 684-7023 (206) 684-ROAD)
Information for truckers and links to other Web sites:
www.seattle.gov/transportation/freight.htm

To avoid commuter traffic and congestion on the Spokane Street Viaduct, there are three ground-level routes connecting Seattle freeways with industries and port terminals:

- S Atlantic Street and E Marginal Way S
- S Michigan Street and E Marginal Way S
- W Marginal Way S and First Avenue S Bridge

See the map inside. Green and white “Truck Route” signs are posted along the routes to guide you.

Permits and information

- Truck Traffic Permits, (206) 684-5086
  Permits for trucks over 30 feet in length to drive through downtown Seattle
  Reserved parking on a street where there are parking meters or pay stations, for loading and unloading or construction only
  Over Legal load permits

- Commercial Vehicle Load Zones, (206) 684-5103
  Permits and information
  Traffic cameras
  www.seattle.gov/trafficcams

General information
(206) 684-7023 (206) 684-ROAD)
Information for truckers and links to other Web sites:
www.seattle.gov/transportation/freight.htm

For Permits and information.
(206) 684-5086
Permits and information
Traffic cameras
www.seattle.gov/trafficcams

Triazaーズマサアリカッドウコードワニンパンドリモニスレテナス

Seattle Municipal Tower, 37th Floor
Seattle, Washington 98124-4996
www.seattle.gov/transportation/freight.htm

General information
(206) 684-7023 (206) 684-ROAD)
Information for truckers and links to other Web sites:
www.seattle.gov/transportation/freight.htm

To avoid commuter traffic and congestion on the Spokane Street Viaduct, there are three ground-level routes connecting Seattle freeways with industries and port terminals:

- S Atlantic Street and E Marginal Way S
- S Michigan Street and E Marginal Way S
- W Marginal Way S and First Avenue S Bridge

See the map inside. Green and white “Truck Route” signs are posted along the routes to guide you.

Permits and information

- Truck Traffic Permits, (206) 684-5086
  Permits for trucks over 30 feet in length to drive through downtown Seattle
  Reserved parking on a street where there are parking meters or pay stations, for loading and unloading or construction only
  Over Legal load permits

- Commercial Vehicle Load Zones, (206) 684-5103
  Permits and information
  Traffic cameras
  www.seattle.gov/trafficcams

General information
(206) 684-7023 (206) 684-ROAD)
Information for truckers and links to other Web sites:
www.seattle.gov/transportation/freight.htm

For Permits and information.
(206) 684-5086
Permits and information
Traffic cameras
www.seattle.gov/trafficcams