

Business Access & Transit Lanes

BAT lanes help move bus riders and others more efficiently and improve access to businesses and residences along the route by reserving outside curb lanes for right-turning vehicles and buses. The City is evaluating the addition of bus priority lanes in new locations throughout Seattle.