

Meeting ground rules

Central Waterfront Stakeholders Group

- Be prepared for all meetings.
- Silence all electronic devices during meetings.
- Start and end on time.
- Listen and speak respectfully—everyone has the opportunity to provide their input and ask questions.
- Speak from interests, not positions.
- Avoid side conversations.
- Avoid characterizing the views of other subgroup members outside meetings or activities.

Advising on Waterfront Seattle and the Elliott Bay Seawall Project