

It's everybody's street. Imagine the possibilities.

celebrate
Seattle Summer Streets

Sunday, May 23 is a party along Alki!

Alki Avenue SW is being opened up between SW Maryland Place and 63rd Avenue SW from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. to people and bicyclists.

Participate in the West Seattle 5K Run/Walk in the morning, sponsored by West Seattle High School PTSA. Check-in begins at 8 a.m. and the run starts at 9:20.

Starting at 11 a.m., come out to play, make art, listen to music, shop at local businesses and make sure to stop by the kid's obstacle course sponsored by Seattle Children's Hospital.

Create your own fun by organizing street games, creating art, or showing off your dog.

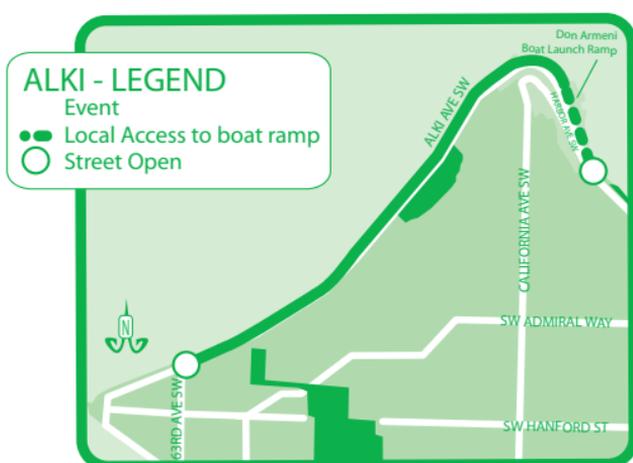

Volunteer opportunities

Summer Streets can't happen without volunteers. Enjoy the sun and talk to neighbors while helping us keep people safe on your block and along the event. Email Summer.Streets@Seattle.gov for more information and to sign up.

NOTE: A single lane going one direction will be open for Water Taxi Shuttle use and local access if residents must move their car during event hours.

What you need to know

- Parking will be restricted along Alki Avenue SW from SW Maryland Place to 63rd Avenue SW. Please plan ahead and observe posted parking restrictions.
- Whatever activity you are engaged in leave at least four feet of space free on sidewalks so wheelchair's can move through safely.
- To minimize impacts to transit the Water Taxi Shuttle will continue operating along Alki Avenue during the event.
- Access exceptions will be made for emergency vehicles and people with disabilities.
- If no other option is available, vehicle travel to and from households within the event area will be allowed in the eastbound transit lane.
