

To Request Your 'Complete' Driving Record

We recommend you print this document and bring it with you to the Department of Licensing when you request your driving record.

The Washington Department of Licensing offers several types of driving records, at a cost of $13 per request. The type of driving record that Seattle Public Utilities requires for your application is:

'Complete' record. Available to the individual named on the driving record, attorneys, law and justice agencies, and governmental agencies. The record shows all traffic related convictions, violations, collisions, suspensions, revocations, disqualifications, deferred prosecutions, and failures to appear.
