

COMMUTE TRIP REDUCTION PROGRAM

Employer Services

The City of Seattle's CTR Program is a partnership connecting large employers to resources and tools that support the use of travel options and keep businesses and the economy thriving. As a CTR affected employer you become part of a network of similar employers who are working towards the same trip reduction goals. You will have access to local resources and other employers within your geographic area and will receive program assistance to help you achieve your reduction goals.

If you have any questions or need any information please contact:

Joseph Bellanca

Commuter Seattle
Center City CTR Representative
(206) 613-3129
josephb@commuteseattle.com

Mark Melnyk

Seattle Department of Transportation
Outside Center City CTR Representative
Seattle CTR Program Lead
(206) 684-5017
mark.melnkyk@seattle.gov

As an affected employer involved in the CTR program you will receive:

- Company and network specific mode split data
- Customizable employer transportation program summary brochure
- Transportation fair planning support
- Company specific RideshareOnline.com network
- Commute options promotional posters
- Quarterly ETC network meetings on topical transportation issues
- Annual Wheel Options campaign
- Access to neighborhood CTR events
- Participation in network leagues for bike month
- Transportation alerts and notifications
- Trip reduction and CTR program consultative services from your CTR representative
- Employee zipcode mapping to match up ridesharing partners
- Scholarships for transportation conferences
- Annual local awards ceremony

For more information please visit: www.seattle.gov/wayto/ctr.htm or www.commuteseattle.com

commute seattle

Seattle Department of Transportation