

Carjacked

When it comes to cars, Americans still drive away from the facts. A disconnect remains between what we say, what we want, and the choices we make. Is it possible to fix this risky equation?

Carjacked:
The culture of the automobile and its effect on our lives
Friday, August 6
3:00 to 4:30 p.m.
Bertha Landes Knight Room in City Hall
600 Fourth Avenue, Seattle

Join "Carjacked" authors Professor Catherine Lutz an anthropologist, and the Thomas J. Watson Jr. Family Professor at Brown University, and Anne Fernandez Lutz, a former marketer and investment banker who is now an English teacher in Westport, Connecticut as they present their research on the complex impact of the automobile on modern society and discuss how to develop a healthier, cheaper, and greener relationship with cars.
