Age Friendly Seattle Coffee Hours are held on the third Thursday of every month at the Central Building and on other dates in Seattle neighborhoods.

The events bring community elders closer to City officials to explore topics of interest. Presentations often include cutting edge information about healthy aging, legal and planning issues, and more.

Participants learn about City programs and services, and officials hear from their constituents.

Coffee and refreshments are served.

Start the new year with Jason Johnson, director of the Seattle Human Services Department (HSD). Jason will report on HSD's accomplishments in 2018 and what's in store in 2019. Bring your questions and suggestions to share and discuss.

New this year: we'll be producing short video stories ("vlogs") about each coffee hour that you can share with your friends or anyone else who wants to learn about these events.

For questions about accessibility or to request an accommodation, contact Lenny Orlov (206-386-1521 or e-mail agefriendly@seattle.gov) at least three days prior to the event.
