Join us for coffee and conversation with

Dr. Karen Fredriksen-Goldsen, Ph.D. Generations Aging With Pride

Thursday, May 17
10:00–11:00 a.m.

The Central Building
810 3rd Avenue
1st Floor Conference Room
(between Columbia & Marion in downtown Seattle)

Karen is the founder of Generations Aging with Pride. An internationally acclaimed scholar on LGBT aging issues and professor at the University of Washington, Karen has spoken at White House and UN Conferences and numerous others, and is extensively published on issues related to aging. She will present on GAP's work with LGBT older adults, current program offerings and ways to get involved. Bring your questions, ideas, and input on programming for LGBT older adults.

For accessibility questions or to request accommodation, contact Sarah at 206-200-6801 or e-mail agefriendly@seattle.gov.

Age Friendly Seattle Coffee Hours are held on the third Thursday of every month at the Central Building and on other dates in Seattle neighborhoods.

The events bring community elders closer to City officials to explore topics of interest. Presentations often include cutting edge information about healthy aging, legal and planning issues, and more.

Participants learn about City programs and services, and officials hear from their constituents.

Coffee and refreshments are served.
