

OTHELLO ENCAMPMENT MEETING

Thursday, March 3 @ 6:30PM

New Holly Gathering Hall // 3815 S Othello St

Council President  Bruce Harrell

Background

Seattle City Council President Bruce Harrell will be convening a second meeting to discuss the proposed plans for the Othello Encampment. There were several questions/concerns that were raised in the first Othello Encampment meeting on February 16.

Agenda

The City of Seattle, along with Low Income Housing Institute (LIHI), would like to further address these concerns, including:

- Management of the space
- Health & safety concerns
- Communication / notification

This meeting aims to continue the dialogue regarding the plans for an Othello encampment and respond to questions/concerns that community members have raised in response to these plans. Council President Harrell, along with representatives from Mayor's Office and City departments, Low Income Housing Institute, and Nickelsville will be in attendance.
