

FEPP LEVY THEORY OF CHANGE

Overall Goal Partner with families and communities to advance educational equity, close opportunity gaps, and build a better economic future for Seattle students

Investment Areas

Core Strategies

FEPP invests in three core strategies across the education continuum to achieve educational equity

Equitable Educational Opportunities	Student and Family Supports	High-Quality Learning Environments
Tuition Subsidies	Student Health Services	Professional Development
Facilities Development	Family Engagement	Organizational Development
Expanded Learning and Academic Support	Whole Child Supports	Educator Diversity
College and Career Readiness		Culturally Responsive Practices

Outcomes

Overall

African American/Black, Hispanic/Latino, Native American, Pacific Islander, underserved Asian populations, other students of color, refugee and immigrant, homeless, English language learners, and LGBTQ students achieve academically across the preschool to post-secondary continuum

Children/Youth are...

- Kindergarten ready
- Meeting or exceeding grade level learning standards
- Healthy and ready to learn
- Graduating high school college and career ready
- Accessing and completing post-secondary education

Programs provide...

- High-quality learning environments and service delivery
- Authentic outreach and engagement with families and partners
- Family satisfaction with and connection to services
- Culturally responsive practices

Systems support...

- Closure of race-based opportunity gaps
- Alignment, collaboration, and trust among partners
- Sustainable infrastructure development
- Multiple access points to high-quality services across the education continuum