

Danie Allinice

July 12 - October 16

Artist Reception: July 13, 4pm

Ethnic Heritage Art Gallery

3rd Floor, Seattle Municipal Tower, 700 5th Ave, Seattle 98104

Artist Statement:

These works—research-based and made using traditional and digital media—revolve around the central idea of language-formed social-taxonomy.

Social-taxonomy shifts environments and one's sense of place and therefore perspective. Otherwise, if not language-generated, these groupings of 'us' and 'other' are exposed and betrayed by language. Here I focus on the anxiety subtle-bias produces and how this language distorts experience

Artist Information:

Danie Allinice was born in Los Angeles in 1981. She earned her BFA, summa cum laude, from Cornish College of the Arts and lives in Seattle with a non-verbal tortoise named Cookie.

BabyButterCreme
24 X 36 inches
Oil and encaustic on wood panel

Ethnic Heritage Art Gallery
<http://www.seattle.gov/ethnicartgallery/>
EthnicArtGallery@seattle.gov