

Vol. 10, No. 34

April 6, 2017

- Celebrating 10 years of Weekly News from the Office of Film + Music -

CITY NEWS

THIS WEEK ON ART ZONE WITH NANCY GUPPY

Musical guest Hi Crime release their new single "Japan" with their first public performance, Greg Ruby honors the legendary jazz composer Frank D. Waldron, Seattle Symphony's new music series inspired by Andy Warhol, and more. Art Zone airs Friday's at 8 p.m. on the Seattle Channel.

Watch Episodes at Seattle Channel

INDUSTRY NEWS

THIS WEEK ON BAND IN SEATTLE: HIBOU

This week on Band in Seattle, discover the sunny sounds of Hibou. Fronted by Peter Michel, Hibou makes sun-soaked beach wave fit for a climate much warmer than ours. Band in Seattle airs Saturday nights on KSTW, CW 11 at 11 pm.

Watch episodes at Band in Seattle

OPPORTUNITY

WE'RE HIRING! APPLY NOW FOR OUR CREATIVE ECONOMY ADVOCATE POSITION

We're seeking an ambitious, well-connected, culturally centered, entrepreneurial person to join the Office of Film + Music team as a Creative Economy Advocate. The role will play an integral part in our continued efforts to help grow Seattle's creative economy.

Apply at City of Seattle

---

MEDIA DIGEST

---

UPSTREAM MUSIC FEST + SUMMIT ANNOUNCES FULL LINE UP

Upstream has announced their full line-up of over 300 + emerging artists from the Pacific Northwest who will perform at the inaugural festival and summit May 11 to 13 in Pioneer Square.

Read more at Upstream Music Fest + Summit

---

WHY IT'S IMPORTANT TO TALK ABOUT WOMEN IN FILM

Discussing the way in which women can be better represented in the film industry usually involves breaking down the conversation into numbers - numbers which are certainly revealing and important, but tend to not give an actual face to the women making the industry tick.

Read more at ShareGrid Blog

---

CITY ARTS RELEASES ITS ANNUAL 'BEST NEW MUSIC' ISSUE

For this year's "Best New Music" issue, City Arts spoke with more than a dozen local musicians of every color, gender, sexuality, genre and style. Purveyors of the sounds that continue to make Seattle such a diverse and compelling musical landscape.

Read more at City Arts

