

Vol. 11, No. 49

July 27, 2018

CITY NEWS

APPLY FOR EXECUTIVE STAFF ASSISTANT BY JULY 31

The Office of Film + Music + Special Events is seeking an Executive Staff Assistant to join our team. Our new colleague will support the Director and the team advancing the work of the office to support and grow the creative economy equitably, with a focus on strengthening the film, music, nightlife and special events sectors. Applications are due by July 31.

Apply today!

THANK YOU FOR ATTENDING THE MIXER!

Shoutout to everyone who made it to last night's Mixer, and a huge thank you to the Seattle Music Commissioners who were able to join us! Input and ideas from the group discussions will help the Music Commission shape their future work advocating for artists and strengthening Seattle's music economy. See you at the next Mixer,

Wednesday August 29.

Learn more at The Mixer Seattle

SEATTLE POLICE DEPARTMENT RELEASES LIP SYNC CHALLENGE VIDEO

Responding to a challenge from the Norfolk Police Department, this week the Seattle Police Department went way beyond just a lip sync and instead released a full music video of Macklemore and Ryan Lewis' "Downtown." The video features lots of cameos from local celebrities and was shot at various locations around Seattle. SPD coordinated closely with the Film + Music Office to get film permits and artist permissions.

Watch the video on YouTube

INDUSTRY

LIVE SHOWS THIS WEEK WITH BAND IN SEATTLE

This week at Victory Studios, Band in Seattle presents Dust Moth and Youryoungbody LIVE in the studio on Thursday, and Actionesse and The Grizzled Mighty in the studio on Friday. RSVP to the event by emailing info@bandinseattle.com to get on the list! Doors are at 6 PM, music starts at 7pm sharp both nights!

Learn more at Band in Seattle

OPPORTUNITIES

FILMMAKERS: SUBMIT YOUR WORK TO SFFSFF 2019

SIFF and the Museum of Pop Culture are seeking submissions for the 14th annual Science Fiction + Fantasy Short Film Festival. The festival brings together industry professionals in filmmaking and the genres of science fiction and fantasy to support new, creative additions to science fiction and fantasy cinema arts. Submissions can be animated or live-action.

Learn more and apply

RSVP FOR CREATIVE ADVANTAGE ARTS PARTNER SUMMER INSTITUTE

The fifth annual Creative Advantage Arts Partner Summer Institute invites educators, artists, teaching artists, students and cultural workers to join in creative community, learn from local experts, engage in art making and share new ideas. This year the event includes an exploration of local issues through local film and media. This free professional learning day will be held at the Seattle Art Museum on August 16; pre-registration is required.

Learn more and register

MEDIA DIGEST

UNCERTAIN FUTURE FOR THE SHOWBOX

This week, news broke that a developer is hoping to build a new residential tower on the site where Seattle's iconic Showbox currently stands. It is unclear what the timeline for this project would be.

The music venue celebrated its 79th anniversary this week.

Read more at Crosscut

EQUINOX IN GEORGETOWN PROVIDES AFFORDABLE SPACE FOR ARTISTS

Creatives have consistently identified workspace affordability as one of their top concerns in 2018. In Seattle's increasingly expensive market, Equinox is providing affordable, stable art studios and rehearsal spaces to more than 100 artists and artisans. Sam Farrazaino, founder of Equinox, hopes to create a replicable model for other artists: "I will tell anybody all of the secrets. Let me hold your hand and help you do it."

Read more at KUOW

NEW HIP HOP LABEL CONNECTS SEATTLE ARTISTS TO SEOUL

Seattle rappers Jarv Dee, Avatar Darko, Raz Simone and singer Phe Reds have recently signed with H1GHR Music, a label co-founded by Korean pop star Jay Park and singer-producer Cha Cha Malone. Park and Malone have local roots, and their new label is turning into a bridge between Korea and the United States, particularly Seattle.

Read more at City Arts

SEATTLE PHOTOGRAPHER PARTNERS WITH APPLE TO TEACH IN-STORE CLASSES

Seattle photographer Chase Jarvis has teamed with Apple for a new collaboration called Photo Lab: Crafting Your Shot. Photo Lab will bring classes on photo technique to more than 500 Apple stores. Jarvis is also the founder and CEO of CreativeLive, an education platform for creatives.

Read more at Geekwire

