

SWEDISH CHERRY HILL SAC MEMBERS

UPDATED FEBRUARY 28, 2017

JULIA BLUM

Ms. Blum relocated to Cherry Hill in 2011. She and her husband targeted the neighborhood for its diversity, energy, and central location - and couldn't be happier with their decision. Julia graduated with honors from New York University with a degree in Fine Art, and started her career in museums and exhibition design. Julia currently works at Amazon as a user experience designer. In addition to her work as a designer, Julia serves on the leadership committee of Amazon's affinity group for women, a role that has allowed her to connect with other young women in technology. Outside of Amazon, Julia enjoys cooking, gardening, and supporting Seattle's art scene.

NATE COOMER

Mr. Coomer lives and works in the central area of Seattle. He works as a Physical Therapist at Swedish Cherry Hill where he specializes in neurologic disorders. He volunteers his time regularly participating in events and speaking for the APDA (American Parkinson's Disease Association) of the Northwest as well as the Northwest Parkinson's Foundation. Outside of work, he volunteers for Seattle Central Little League as a coach and spends much of his time exploring the city with his wife and 2 kids.

JUSTIN KLIEWER

Mr Kliewer is an architect with 11 years of residential design experience. He is a resident of the Central District who moved to Seattle in 2003 to attend UW, fell in love with the city and decided to make it his home. He has volunteered with Inner City Outings introducing kids from the CD to outdoor adventures, and is an avid cook, a fair-weather hiker, and a novice cross-country skier."

CATHERINE KOEHN

Ms. Koehn started her career as a management consultant then transitioned into nonprofit leadership. As a grants officer, Ms. Koehn manages community and economic development projects across Washington and Alaska, with expertise in performance measurement, monitoring, and compliance. She is an AmeriCorps Alum who is committed to promoting volunteerism and service as a solution to addressing local needs. When she's not working, she volunteers with her children's school, organizes neighborhood events, loves to travel, and enjoys outdoor adventures around Seattle.

CLAIRE LANE

Ms. Lane has lived in her home in the Central Area since 1999 and in Seattle since 1992. She earned her master's degree in public administration at UW's Evans School of Public Affairs and has worked in nonprofit management and public policy for the past 25 years. She has extensive experience working with public-private partnerships, and developing and implementing public policy to promote healthier, more equitable communities. She loves her family, gardening, civic engagement, good books, coffee, and vibrant neighborhoods.

DAVE LETRONDO

Mr. Letrondo served on the Swedish Cherry Hill Citizen's Advisory Committee (CAC) and has a significant experience and knowledge of the approved MIMP. With over 35 years of architectural experience, Mr.

Letrondo has been involved with the design and construction of MRI Suites, Catheter Labs, ICUs, Cardiovascular ORs, Neuro ORs, PT/OT clinics, Nursing Suites, Memory Care, Assisted Living and neighborhood clinics. As a past Rotary Club of Emerald City member and having donated over six gallons of blood, Mr. Letrondo understands the need to volunteer while helping the community.

JEFF DVI-VARDHANA

Mr. Dvi-varadhana has been at Ankrom Moisan Architects since moving to Seattle in 2015 and is currently working on a multi-family housing project in South Lake Union. He has been part of the Big Brother Program since 2005 in both Boston and Atlanta; and has also spent time teaching at Georgia Institute of Technology and the Boston Architectural Center.
