RSJI Teams and Structure

- Core Team - A Citywide team of about 30 people that works with key stakeholders on RSJ issues. Provide Citywide technical assistance and strategic planning support; Communicate/facilitate. Team members lead RSJI orientations and workshops for City staff;

- Change Team - A group of employees in each department that supports RSJ Initiative activities. Extend RSJI’s reach in departments; Strengthen departments’ capacity. Show how co-workers can get involved; give them reasons to support RSJI; Offer expertise. Work to address departmental issues; Build momentum. Sustain the energy in departments.

- RSJI Sub-Cabinet - Department directors or deputies who advise on Citywide issues, review RSJI activities and solve problems.

- RSJI Coordinating Team - The Initiative’s managing team from the Seattle Office for Civil Rights. Works with the Mayor and City Council to set overall direction; Provides leadership to ensure departments’ efforts are consistent and coordinated; Oversees the day-to-day administration of the Initiative.

- Interdepartmental Teams - Teams convened by lead departments to develop Citywide strategies to address the Initiative central issues. Solve problems. Team members work with managers and line staff on specific issues.

- RSJ Community Roundtable – Twenty-three organizations and agencies working to eliminate race-based disparities in our community and promote race and social justice across Seattle institutions.
