

Contact Information

Carrie Brazil, Volunteer Coordinator
carrie.brazil@seattle.gov
Desk (206) 684-7722

Stop the Bleed – Volunteer Instructor Position Description

Opportunity Details

Job Title	Emergency Preparedness Educator – Stop the Bleed Volunteer
Position Type	Volunteer
Purpose	Provide training to the public on bleeding control skills
Supervisor	Public Education Coordinator
Service Area	City of Seattle (within Seattle city limits)
Maximum Positions	8

Opportunity Description

Key Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Educate the community on “Stop the Bleed” (STB) bleeding control skills • Transport materials and equipment to presentation sites • Attend volunteer meetings • Assist in managing the Stop the Bleed program for OEM
Time Commitment	A minimum time commitment of six trainings per year.
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Possess one or more one of the following credentials: EMR, EMT, Paramedic, Registered Nurse (Current, inactive, or retired), Nurse Practitioner, Physician’s Assistant, MD/DO • Willingness to support the Seattle Office of Emergency Management mission • Ability to display professionalism, excellent communication skills, and strong interpersonal skills. • Ability to transport and lift equipment up to 30lbs • Flexibility of schedule, willingness to work occasional nights and weekends • Demonstrated experience, interest or willingness to work with diverse populations • Demonstrated experience or interest in public education or public speaking • Valid Driver’s License or WA state-issued identification, proof of medical related qualifications • Reliable method of transportation • Punctual and dependable

Seattle
Office of Emergency Management

Contact Information

Carrie Brazil, Volunteer Coordinator

carrie.brazil@seattle.gov

Desk (206) 684-7722

Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Volunteers must complete STB train the trainer education and attend volunteer meetings and other applicable trainings. Stop the Bleed, Train the Trainer Course• Volunteer Orientation to Seattle Office of Emergency Management• Public Education & Outreach Overview• Others as necessary
Length of Appointment	Ongoing; Minimum of one year
Development Opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Support a valuable mission and make a difference in the Seattle community• Gain valuable training and experience in emergency management/preparedness education• Network and meet new people-develop new skills• Develop relationships with stakeholders in the community