

Kitchen Table Talks

about age-friendly communities

A monthly conversation with Age Friendly Seattle

Welcome! Please stand by.

Thank you to our community partners!

The Built Environment

The Social Environment

Guidelines

- Patience, flexibility, open-mindedness, and common courtesy are essential. Listen to and respect all points of view, seek to understand rather than to persuade. We want you to share your views and experiences AND discover new insights from others.
- Please restrict your comments to the timing set by the Kitchen Table Talk moderator (typically one minute or less).
- When you speak, and each time you speak, please include your first name (example, “This is Joe. I think ...”).

How to Comment or Ask a Question

Questions and comments submitted via e-mail, text, and social media will be read by one of the Age Friendly Seattle coordinators.

- E-mail: agefriendly@seattle.gov
- Text: 206-200-6801
- Facebook: Post at www.facebook.com/events/369896896842538/
- Twitter: Tweet @agefriendlySEA #kitchentabletalk
- Online: Type in the “IM” window at the lower left corner of your screen.
- Voice: Depending on the number of participants, it may be difficult to be recognized. Please wait for a pause in the discussion, and please be patient.

May
topic:
Housing

How have family dynamics affected your housing arrangements?

May
topic:
Housing

What support do you need to stay in your current home if that is what you desire?
How can you get that support?

May
topic:
Housing

Why did you choose your current home?

May
topic:
Housing

How do you establish your sense of home after a move?

May
topic:
Housing

Why do you think people resist moving when moving may be in their best interests?

May
topic:
Housing

We often think of the American Dream with regard to housing. Does this resonate with you? In what way? How is the American Dream changing?

May
topic:
Housing

What innovations have you heard about or experienced with regard to housing (e.g., co-housing, the “village” concept, homesharing match-up websites, etc.)?

Other questions or comments, if time allows ...

Thank you again!

Kitchen Table Talks

about age-friendly communities

A monthly conversation with Age Friendly Seattle

Our next Kitchen Table Talk is on Tuesday, June 19.

www.seattle.gov/agefriendly/events

Kitchen Table Talks

about age-friendly communities

A monthly conversation with Age Friendly Seattle

Thank you for participating today!