REVIEW AGENDA AND APPROVE MINUTES / ANNOUNCEMENTS

Moved, seconded, and passed (10-0-0): "To approve with no changes 3/26/14 CPC meeting minutes."

CPC STAFF AND COMMISSIONER UPDATE

Anne Bettsworth, CPC's new policy analyst, will start on April 21st. Anne has extensive experience with law enforcement and policy.

The CPC is working on creating the Community Engagement/Communications Strategist position. Staff will consult members of the CPC and the Office of Civil Rights to find someone with strong ties to the community and excellent communication and media skills.

Lieutenant Ron Rasmussen was confirmed as CPC Commissioner April 7th by the City Council.

The three new CPC commissioner appointees will be announced shortly.

Accountability Workgroup Update

The CPC met with members of the Seattle Human Rights Commission and the Office of Professional Accountability Review Board to discuss the police accountability.

The Seattle City Council and OPARB will host a public hearing regarding the Seattle Police Department's accountability structure on April 22nd. The hearing will provide a forum for elected officials to hear directly from the public before the City begins labor negotiations with the Seattle Police Officers' Guild (SPOG).

The CPC will hold three community outreach meetings during the week of April 14, inviting community leaders and partner organizations to discuss the police accountability structure. The CPC will also meet with members of SPOG, SPMA and members of the LRPC.

The CPC will meet on April 30 to review and make recommendations to the DOJ's OPA Manual revisions.
