(b) These Rules apply to all matters properly before the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner (or Hearing Examiner and members of the Human Rights Commission, as applicable) on or after the Rules’ effective date.

1.2 INTERPRETATION OF RULES

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

(a) The ~~Hearing~~ Examiner shall interpret the Discrimination Rules and determine their application.

(b) While a matter is pending before the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner (or ~~Hearing~~ Examiner and members of the Human Rights Commission, as applicable), an affected party may request by motion that the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner issue a declaratory ruling on the applicability of a Rule to identified, existing circumstances. The motion must clearly identify the Rule and describe the circumstances for which the declaratory ruling is sought. Unless brought during a hearing, the motion must be in writing.

(c) The Rules may be waived or modified, at the Examiner’s (or Examiner and members of the Human Rights Commission, as applicable) discretion, to promote hearing fairness and efficiency. When questions arise that the Rules do not address, or a procedural conflict is created by the application of the Rules, the Examiner shall determine the practice or procedure most appropriate and consistent with providing fair treatment, and efficiency. The Examiner may look to the Washington State Superior Court Civil Rules (“CR”) for guidance
(http://www.courts.wa.gov/court_rules/?fa=court_rules.list&group=sup&set=CR).

2.5 EXPECTED CONDUCT AND APPEARANCE OF FAIRNESS

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

All persons appearing before the Examiner shall conduct themselves with civility and courtesy to all persons involved in the hearing. - 5 Exclude any disruptive person from further participation and have them removed from the premises. A person so excluded is deemed to have forfeited any right to participate in the hearing.
- 6 Limit or prohibit picket signs, posters, flags, or other visible or audible demonstrations as necessary to maintain order, security, and the appearance of fairness in any hearing.

(e) Except by leave of the Examiner, all communications to the Examiner should be made from a position at or beside the dedicated table location.

(f) During a hearing, party representatives should not approach opposing party representatives, witnesses, the Examiner or hearing staff without leave of the Examiner. If it becomes necessary for a party representative to confer with the Examiner during a hearing, permission should be obtained.

(g) Parties shall adhere to Orders issued by an Examiner.

3.16 APPEARANCE OF FAIRNESS

(a) Hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the appearance of fairness doctrine, codified at RCW Chapter 42.36.

(b) Ex parte communication is prohibited. No interested person or representative shall communicate ex parte directly or indirectly with the Examiner concerning the merits or facts of any matter before the Examiner.

(c) This rule does not prohibit ex parte communications about procedural topics, nor does it apply to written submissions made for the record and available to all participants.

(a) ~~(d) If a prohibited ex parte communication is made, the Examiner shall promptly and publicly disclose the communication and provide the parties an opportunity to review and rebut it. Anyone appearing before the Hearing Officer shall conduct himself or herself with civility and courtesy toward everyone involved in the hearing.~~

~~(b) The appearance of fairness doctrine applies to proceedings under these Rules.~~

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

~~(a) Documents may be filed with the Hearing Examiner in hard copy, in electronic format through the e-File page of the Hearing Examiner's website (www.seattle.gov/examiner) or, subject to Rule 2.06(b), by electronic facsimile. Formatted: Indent: Left: 0.57", No bullets or numbering

~~(b) Documents are deemed filed with the Examiner when the Office receives them. Documents filed on non-business days, or outside regular business hours, are deemed filed on the next business day. ~~Hearing Examiner has specified otherwise. Documents filed in any format on non-business days, or outside regular business hours, are deemed filed on the next business day.~~

~~(b) Service of the original summons and complaint shall be by personal service or by other manner of service provided by Superior Court Civil Rule 4.~~

~~(d)(c) All documents filed with the Office shall be served on opposing parties. Service shall be initiated on the same day of filing.~~

~~(e)(d) Unless otherwise provided by Code, the Examiner, or party agreement, documents other than the summons and complaint shall be served on all parties via electronic mail. Where a party has not provided an electronic mail address, service may be by U.S. Mail or personal service. Unless otherwise provided by law, by the Hearing Examiner, or by agreement of the parties, all documents other than the summons and complaint shall be served on all parties personally, by first class, registered, or certified mail, or by facsimile transmission. City agencies may serve other City agencies through the City's regular interoffice mail. Proof of service must be filed with the Hearing Examiner.~~

~~(a) Unless otherwise provided by the Hearing Examiner, or by agreement of the parties, service is complete at the time documents are personally delivered, or confirmed as having been successfully transmitted by facsimile. Unless earlier receipt is shown, service by mail is complete on the third day after deposit in the regular facilities of the US mail of a properly stamped and addressed letter or packet unless the third day falls on a non-business day, in which case service is complete on the first business day after the third day, or confirmed as having been successfully transmitted by electronic mail. Unless earlier receipt is shown, service by mail is complete on the third day after deposit of a properly stamped and addressed letter or packet into regular U.S. Mail facilities. If the third day falls on a non-business day, service is complete on the next business day.~~

~~(e) It is the sender's responsibility to confirm receipt of an e-Filing or of electronic mail service. Requesting a confirmation receipt for electronic mail is recommended. It is the sender's responsibility to file e-Filed materials that the Examiner can read, view, and/or listen to.~~

2.77.3 MOTIONS

(b) Within seven days of service of a written motion, or such other time as the Examiner may designate, any other party may file a written response. After the Examiner has received any written responses, or the seven days or other designated time has elapsed, the Examiner may rule on the motion. Failure of a party to file a timely response may be considered as evidence of that party's consent to the motion, and failure to respond to an issue raised in the motion shall constitute abandonment of that issue.

(c) The Examiner may authorize a reply or other additional briefing. Where the Examiner has not yet determined if a party may file a reply, such parties should request a determination prior to filing a reply.

(d) Parties may request oral argument on a motion. The Examiner may grant or deny the request.

(e) For motions made during a prehearing conference or at hearing, and motions made for the extension of time or to expedite the hearing, the Examiner may waive this Rule's requirements.

(f) The Examiner may rule upon motions orally, except for motions that are fully dispositive of a case. Parties are not entitled to oral argument on motions.

(g) Written decisions on motions do not require findings and conclusions to be made in support of the decision, except for motions that are fully dispositive of a case.

(g) If a schedule for filing motions and related briefing is established by order of the Examiner, motions to dismiss some or all of an appeal may not be filed at any other time without permission of the Examiner.

▲ (h) Motions to dismiss all or part of an appeal, other dispositive motions, and motions to exclude evidence (testimony or exhibits) shall be in writing and shall be filed at the earliest possible time in the proceedings to allow time for the other party to respond, as provided in RDC 3.17(b).

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

▲ (j) Motion to Dismiss. A party may move to dismiss an appeal, in whole or in part, if:

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

- (1) The appellant lacks standing to appeal the decision or action being challenged;
- (2) The appeal was not filed before the appeal deadline, or does not otherwise conform to appeal requirements;
- (3) The Examiner lacks jurisdiction, in whole or in part, over the appeal;
- (4) The appeal is frivolous or without merit on its face; or
- (5) Other grounds established by law exist.

(k) Motion for Summary Judgment. For reasons of hearing efficiency summary judgment motions are disfavored. A party may move for summary judgment on an appeal or claim with permission of the Examiner, and if:

- (1) There is no genuine issue of material fact; and
- (2) The moving party can show that when the law is applied to those facts, the party is entitled to judgment on the claim or claims.

The schedule for filing and responsive briefing for a summary judgment motion will be set by the Examiner, and will generally exceed the deadlines identified in HER 3.17 (b). This rule does not require Examiner permission if the motion seeks dismissal based on one of the grounds listed in RDC 3.17(i).

(l) The Examiner may grant a written motion seeking permission to file a brief amicus curiae, if the Examiner determines that the brief would assist the Examiner. A motion to file an amicus curiae brief shall identify:

- (1) The applicant's interest and the person or group the applicant represents, if any;
- (2) The applicant's familiarity with the issues involved in the proceeding;
- (3) Issues the amicus curiae brief will address; and
- (4) The reason additional argument is necessary.

(b) The Hearing Examiner shall rule on the motion and state the basis for the ruling. In case of disqualification or recusal of the Hearing Examiner, the matter shall be assigned to a different Examiner.

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

(c) The Examiner's decision on a disqualification request shall be documented on the record. The Examiner may orally or in writing:

REMOTE HEARING APPEARANCE

(a) A party may appear by telephone or video conference (collectively “remote” appearance) at a hearing when authorized by the Rules or directed by the Examiner to do so in advance of the hearing. A request for a remote appearance must be made as early as possible and should be made no later than one week in advance of the hearing. Authorization for a party or witness to appear remotely is subject to successful completion of a system test, prior to the hearing, to ensure the party’s system is compatible with the Office equipment.

(b) Procedural hearings such as prehearing conferences or a status conference will be held by video conference. Appeal hearings for citations will also be held by video conference. Parties may request, or the Examiner may order in-person or telephonic participation for such matters. (See also HER 3.07.)

(c) To the degree possible, hearings conducted remotely should be treated as an in-person hearing in accordance with the Seattle Municipal Code and the Rules. This includes logging in to participate in the hearing on time, and each participant conducting themselves with the decorum and respect owed to each other and the hearing forum as if they were attending an in-person hearing.

(d) It is inevitable that remote hearings will encounter limitations concerning technology. All parties are urged to be patient with regard to the technological and other difficulties experienced by others.

(e) If in the determination of the Examiner, the technology supporting the hearing is not performing adequately, the Examiner may suspend or continue the hearing, make arrangements for submission of materials or testimony at a later date, or make other necessary arrangements.

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

(f) Parties shall adhere to any protocols for remote hearings issued by the Examiner, and the Rules.

(g) Parties to an appeal appearing remotely.

- (1) A party to an appeal authorized to appear remotely shall send electronic copies of documents it intends to submit as evidence to the Examiner and other parties, with receipt by the Examiner and other parties no later than seven days before the hearing (or such other date the Examiner identifies). On request of the Examiner, a single hard copy of each exhibit must also be mailed to the Office.
- (2) All exhibits shall be marked numerically and presented in sequential order. Electronic documents shall have one- to three-word titles word titles clearly identifying the document.
- (3) A party appearing remotely shall arrange a means to receive exhibits from other parties instantaneously during the hearing (e.g., electronic mail).
- (4) No exhibits will be admitted by showing documents through a videoconference call.
- (5) Exhibits submitted for purposes of impeachment may be admitted according to order of the Examiner, or during the hearing subject to Examiner discretion.
- (6) If a party is not able to access the hearing due to a technological failure, the party shall notify the Office immediately.

(h) Witnesses appearing remotely.

- (1) The party calling the witness shall provide all necessary exhibits to the witness before the hearing, so the witness may refer to them during the hearing.

The party calling the witness shall ensure email communication is available with the witness during the hearing.

2.20.01 General.

Parties who wish to utilize this process must do so at the earliest possible time to avoid later delay in the hearing process. Discovery should be limited to relevant, non-duplicative material and not be overburdensome to other parties.

(b) The Examiner typically is not involved in the discovery process and is not copied on documents produced, or on correspondence and electronic mail about discovery matters.

(c) In response to a motion, or on Examiner initiative, the Examiner may compel discovery, or prohibit or limit discovery (for example where it is overly burdensome, harassing, or unnecessary).

2.20.02 Discovery Rules. Prehearing discovery is permitted as follows:

(a) Depositions may be taken and used in the manner provided by Washington Civil Rules for Superior Court 26, 27, 29, 30, 31 and 32. Whenever those rules refer to the court, the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner shall be substituted. Depositions shall be transcribed upon the request of any party and payment of the reasonable costs of transcription.

(b) Interrogatories may be propounded and used in the manner provided by Washington Civil Rules for Superior Court 26, 29 and 33, except that the party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers on the party submitting the interrogatories within 20 days, or such shorter or longer time as the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner may allow upon motion filed and served after the interrogatories have been served. Whenever Civil Rules 26, 29 and 33 refer to the court, the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner shall be substituted.

(c) Requests for admission of fact may be served on a party in the manner provided by Washington Civil Rules for Superior Court 26, 29 and 36, except that the party upon whom the requests have been served shall serve a response on the party submitting the requests within 20 days, or such shorter or longer time as the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner may allow upon motion filed and served after the requests for admission have been served. Whenever Civil Rules 26, 29 and 36 refer to the court, the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner shall be substituted.

(d) Requests for production of documents and tangible things, and for entry upon land may be made in the manner provided by Washington Civil Rules for Superior Court 26, 29 and 34, except that the party upon whom the requests have been served shall serve a response on the party submitting the requests within 20 days, or such shorter or longer time as the Hearing Examiner may allow upon motion filed and served after the requests have been served. Whenever Civil Rules 26, 29 and 34 refer to the court, the Hearing Examiner shall be substituted.

(e) Requests for a physical or mental examination may be made in the manner provided by Washington Civil Rules for Superior Court 26, 29 and 35. Whenever Civil Rules 26, 29 and 35 refer to the court, the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner shall be substituted.

2.217.17 FAILURE TO PROVIDE DISCOVERY/SANCTIONS

(a) If under Rule-RDC 2.20 a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation, or a party fails to answer or respond to an interrogatory or request for production submitted, or a party fails to respond that a requested inspection will be permitted or fails to permit inspection as requested, a party may file and serve a motion for an order compelling the requested discovery. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before applying for an order. If the motion is denied, the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner may enter a protective order as provided in Civil Rule 26(c). If the motion is granted, the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner shall direct the deponent to answer, or shall direct the party or designated representative to provide or permit the requested discovery. If a deponent or party fails to comply with the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner's order, the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner may enter such oral or written orders regarding the failure as are just including, but not limited to the following:

- (1) infer that the admission, testimony, documents or other evidence sought would have been adverse to the party;
- (2) order that the matter which was the subject of the order be taken as established adversely to the party;
- (3) order that the party may not introduce into evidence or otherwise rely upon the testimony of the individual, officer or agent, or the documents or other evidence, that was the subject of the order;
- (4) permit the use of secondary evidence to show what the withheld admission, testimony, documents, or other evidence would have shown without regard to the disobedient party's objection;
- (5) order that a pleading or part thereof, or a motion or other submission by the party that was the subject of the order be stricken, or that a decision be rendered against a party, or both.

(b) If a deponent or party fails to make discovery, or to comply with an order of the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner, the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner may also invoke the aid of the City Attorney, who shall apply to the appropriate court for an order or other action as necessary to secure enforcement of the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner's discovery orders.

14 (d) Unless otherwise provided by Examiner order, if a party expects to offer a document as an exhibit at hearing, the party shall supply a copy of the document to each party either before or at hearing.

hearing independently of representation by the City Attorney, has the right to notice of hearing, presentation of evidence, rebuttal, objection, cross-examination, argument, and other rights determined by the Hearing Examiner as necessary for the full disclosure of facts and a fair hearing.

▲ (b) Parties have the right to be represented by an attorney; representation by an attorney is not required.

▲ (c) When a party has designated a representative, the representative shall exercise the rights of the party.

(d) ~~Unless otherwise provided by order of the Hearing Examiner, if a party expects to offer a document as an exhibit at the hearing, the party shall supply a copy of the document to every other party.~~

~~2.26~~ AMICUS CURIAE

~~The Hearing Examiner may grant a written motion seeking permission to file a brief amicus curiae if the Examiner determines that the brief would assist the Hearing Officer. The motion shall not exceed six double spaced pages and shall state the movant's identity and interest in the case, the specific issues to be addressed in the brief, and the reasons the movant believes additional briefing is needed. The Hearing Examiner may permit amicus curiae to present oral argument if the Examiner determines that it would assist the Hearing Officer and sufficient time is available.~~

~~2.27~~ 14.2 TESTIMONY

(c) (a) ~~Witnesses testifying at hearing shall take an oath or affirmation to be truthful in their testimony. Witnesses are subject to cross-examination by other parties.~~

~~(b) Testimony and argument are limited to matters relevant to the Examiner's decision.~~

~~(c) The Examiner may limit testimony length to expedite the proceedings. The Examiner may pre-set allotted time for testimony. If parties are unable to complete their testimony and arguments within the allotted time, and the hearing may not be continued, it is within Examiner discretion to leave the record open and to provide an opportunity to submit written materials after the close of the hearing.~~

~~(d) No person shall be compelled to divulge information, which could not be compelled in a court of law. A witness has the right to invoke any legally recognized privilege. The rules of privilege (e.g., attorney-client, etc.) apply to the extent recognized by law.~~

~~(e) The Examiner may allow witness testimony to be submitted by sworn statement, granting to such statement the evidentiary weight warranted under the circumstances.~~

~~(f) Facts or argument from an unsworn attorney or other representative are not evidence.~~

~~(g) Although Examiner hearings are open to the public, a person who is not a party is generally not permitted to testify, or comment, in appeal hearings unless a party calls them as a witness.~~

~~(h) Interpreters. Before beginning to interpret, every interpreter shall take an oath that, to the best of the interpreter's ability, a true interpretation shall be made that is understandable for the person utilizing the interpreter, and that the interpreter shall repeat~~ statements in English to the Examiner and the other parties. (See also HER 1.06).

(i) Cross-Examination. Subject to the below, every party may cross-examine witnesses:

- (1) Cross-examination is limited to direct testimony subject matter, the foundation for opinions and statements, and to determine any bias, conflict of interest, or any other issue that reflects on credibility.
- (2) Expert witnesses may also be subject to cross-examination on the sufficiency of their qualifying credentials.
- (3) The Examiner will prohibit irrelevant, cumulative, unduly repetitious, argumentative, or abusive cross-examination.
- (4) Only one person representing each party may cross-examine a witness. In cases with multiple parties with shared interest, the Examiner may place limits on the cross-examination of an individual witness by such parties to protect against undue repetition in the questions being asked.
- (5) A party may seek re-direct testimony after cross-examination. Re-direct is limited to the subjects addressed during cross-examination.
- (6) The Examiner may limit cross examination of opinion testimony offered by an interested person who does not claim to be an expert.
- (7) The Examiner may establish reasonable time limits for cross-examination, consistent with the requirements of due process.

(a) All testimony before the Hearing Officer shall be taken under oath or affirmation. All witnesses are subject to cross examination by the other party.

(b) (i) The rules of privilege apply to the extent recognized by law.

(c) The Hearing Examiner may allow testimony via teleconference or videoconference or similar electronic means. Each party to the proceeding shall have the opportunity to hear (or for a videoconference, to both hear and see) testimony given in this manner and to question the person giving such testimony. Any costs associated with electronic conferencing shall be borne by the party requesting it.

2.2814.3 EVIDENCE

(d) Evidence, including hearsay, may be admitted if the Examiner determines it is relevant, comes from a reliable source, and has probative (proving) value. Such evidence is that which reasonable persons would commonly rely on in conducting important affairs.

(b) The Examiner may exclude evidence that is irrelevant, unreliable, immaterial, unduly repetitive, or privileged.

(c) At public hearings on matters in which the Examiner prepares a recommendation for the City Council, opinion evidence of non-experts may be admitted into the record. At appeal hearings, opinion evidence from non-experts is discouraged but the Examiner may admit the testimony and give it appropriate weight.

(d) All evidence that a party plans to submit at hearing shall be exchanged with all other parties to the appeal, except as otherwise agreed by the parties or ordered by the Examiner. Any evidence offered at the hearing that was not disclosed by the party offering it may be excluded, unless the Examiner permits it for impeachment purposes, or the party demonstrates extenuating circumstances apply.

(f) The Examiner determines the probative value, if any, of all admitted evidence.

(g) In passing upon the admissibility of evidence, the Examiner may consider, but shall not be bound to follow, the Washington State Rules of Evidence (http://www.courts.wa.gov/court_rules/?fa=court_rules.rulesPDF&groupName=ga&setName=ER). Where the Rules of Evidence conflict with the Rules or Code, the Rules or Code shall take precedence.

~~(a) Relevant, material and reliable evidence shall be admitted. Such evidence includes that on which responsible individuals would commonly rely in the conduct of their important affairs. Irrelevant, unreliable, immaterial, and unduly repetitive evidence shall be excluded.~~

~~(b) Documentary evidence may be received in the form of copies or excerpts. The Hearing Examiner may require that the parties be given an opportunity to compare the copy with the original, and that the complete document from which an excerpt is taken be made available for inspection by all parties.~~

~~(c) The Hearing Examiner may take official notice of judicially cognizable facts. Before a decision is issued, parties must be notified of the facts noticed and their source, and afforded an opportunity to contest or rebut them. A Hearing Officer may utilize his or her experience, technical competence and specialized knowledge in evaluating the evidence.~~

~~(d) A Hearing Examiner ruling or Hearing Officer decision may refer to and utilize any part of the Code.~~

OBJECTION

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

An objection to admitting testimony or evidence shall identify the grounds for objection. Any evidence entered into the record without objection is admissible.

Evidence/Exhibits

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

(a) A party to an appeal shall send electronic copies of exhibits it intends to submit as evidence to the Examiner and other parties, with receipt by the Examiner and other parties no later than seven days before the hearing (or such other date the Examiner identifies). On request of the Examiner, a single hard copy of each exhibit must also be mailed or delivered to the Office

(b) Documents submitted as exhibits must be legible. Unless challenged for authenticity and found unreliable by the Examiner, documents may be received in their entirety or as excerpts. The Examiner may require that the parties be given an opportunity to compare the copy with the original, and that the complete document from which an excerpt is taken be made available for inspection.

(c) The Examiner may exclude any evidence imposing an unreasonable custodial burden. The Examiner may require substitute photographs, reduced-sized copies, or written or oral descriptions.

(d) Copies of any screen presentation, such as PowerPoint, must be provided as specified above.

(e) Exhibits submitted for the record will not normally be returned.

(f) Exhibits at remote hearings must comply with Rule 3.11.

~~2.29~~14.4 BURDEN AND STANDARD OF PROOF

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

(a) The Department, and the charging party if the charging party has filed a supplemental complaint, has the burden of proving a prima facie case against the respondent. In this context, a prima facie showing requires the introduction of evidence sufficient to compel a conclusion in the absence of contradicting evidence.

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

(b) Unless otherwise provided by applicable law, the standard of proof is a preponderance of the evidence.

~~2.30~~14.5 HEARING FORMAT

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

(a) Hearings have a structured format to elicit relevant evidence efficiently and fairly. The ~~hearing is informal in nature but structured to elicit relevant evidence efficiently while providing the parties a fair opportunity for hearing.~~

(b) The hearing shall include the following elements in an order determined by the Hearing Examiner to be appropriate to the case:

~~(a)~~(c) Hearing Examiner's introductory statement;

~~(b)~~(d) parties' brief opening statements (optional);

~~(c)~~(e) presentation of department's case;

~~(d)~~(f) presentation of charging party's case if the charging party has entered an ancillary appearance;

~~(e)~~(g) presentation of respondent's case;

~~(f)~~(h) opportunity for rebuttal;

~~(g)~~(i) opportunity for questions from the Hearing Officer; and ~~(h)~~(j) parties' closing arguments.

The Examiner may modify the order of presentation to promote clear and fair presentation. With the Examiner's approval, the order of presentation may be modified by agreement of the parties. Recesses will be set by the Examiner.

(c) The order of presentation does not alter any legally established burden or presumption.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

(a) The Hearing Examiner may take official notice of judicially cognizable facts. In addition, the Examiner may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within his or her specialized knowledge.

(b) A Hearing Examiner ruling, decision, or recommendation may refer to and utilize any part of the Code and any issued Examiner decision.

2.3414.6 HEARING OFFICER'S DECISION

(a) The Hearing Officer shall issue a written decision and provide a copy to each party within 30 days from the date on which the record is closed. The decision may also include an order directing parties to take actions consistent with the decision.

(c) When the Hearing Examiner sits with two Commission representatives, each Hearing Officer shall have one vote on the decision. The decision shall be made by majority as provided in these Rules.

~~2.33~~14.7 ABSENCE OF HEARING OFFICER

(a) When a Commission representative is absent during the course of the hearing, the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner may decide to proceed with the hearing. If the absent representative reviews the record of those parts of the hearing the representative missed, the representative may participate in the decision process.

(b) When a Commission representative is unable to continue to hear a case, the Commission may appoint a substitute representative, who shall review the record to the point of his or her substitution before participating in the decision process.

CLERICAL ERRORS AND CLARIFICATIONS

Clerical mistakes in decisions, recommendations, orders, or the record, and errors arising from oversight or omission, may be corrected by Examiner order or initiative, or in response to a motion for clarification by a party. A motion for clarification does not stop, or alter, the running of the time period provided by law for appealing the Examiner's decision.

3.28 PROCEEDINGS RECORDED

Examiner proceedings are electronically recorded. Hearing recordings are part of the official record. Copies of the recordings are available for each proceeding on the Office of Hearing Examiner website under the case number for each matter (<http://www.seattle.gov/hearing-examiner/decisions/case-search>).

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

(b) Prior to hearing, a party who reasonably believes that the Hearing Examiner assigned to a matter cannot remain objective in hearing it due to personal bias, prejudice, financial interest, or other substantial reason, may request by written motion and an affidavit of prejudice that the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner be disqualified from hearing the matter. The motion and affidavit should be made at the earliest possible time, preferably no later than 7 business days prior to the day the hearing is to begin. The affidavit of prejudice must set forth in detail the reasons for the belief that the ~~Hearing~~ Examiner cannot remain objective in hearing the matter.

SECTION 4 MEDIATION AND SETTLEMENT

4.01 PURPOSE

(a) Mediation is a process that allows the participants to explore resolution of an appeal without going through a formal hearing procedure. In mediation, a neutral third party (a "mediator") facilitates communication and negotiation between the parties to assist them in finding mutually acceptable solutions to disagreements. The process is voluntary, and the parties may or may not reach a written agreement. The mediator does not have the power to make a decision for the parties but can help the parties find a resolution that is mutually acceptable. The only people who can resolve the dispute in mediation are the parties themselves. Mediation is more flexible than the formal appeal process and may allow the participants greater control over the process and outcome and may allow consideration of outcomes beyond those an Examiner might have authority to address.

(b) Settlement is the voluntary resolution of a dispute through party agreement. The Examiner does not participate in the settlement process.

(c) Mediation or settlement may be used to address some, or all of the issues that have been raised in a notice of appeal. The Examiner encourages the use of mediation and/or settlement to reach voluntary and mutually acceptable solutions.

4.02 INITIATION

(a) Mediation may be requested by the parties, or it may be suggested by the Examiner. Parties may initiate mediation privately at any time.

(b) Settlement is initiated privately between the parties at any time.

(c) If all parties agree to mediate or engage in settlement discussions, and to extend deadlines in the proceedings, the Examiner may continue any deadlines and hearings.

4.03 RESOURCES

(a) At any time, a party may request a referral for mediator services.

(b) The Examiner may provide information on mediation resources, including free or low-cost mediation services, but the Examiner does not warrant or represent the quality or suitability of any such resource.

(c) In some cases, the Examiner may request another Examiner to offer mediation services. If another Examiner mediates the case:

- (1) The Examiner serving as mediator shall not be the Examiner assigned to the case.
- (2) The Examiner serving as mediator may not communicate or discuss the mediation, or any other aspect of the case, with the Examiner assigned to the case, except procedural matters to arrange the mediation.
- (3) The parties must agree to the Examiner serving as mediator.
- (4) Whether an Examiner may serve in such a role is dependent on availability, and subject to Examiner discretion.

4.04 CONDUCT OF MEDIATION

(a) Before mediation, each party representative shall file a declaration affirming:

- (1) A party representative with authority to settle the matter will be available for the duration of the mediation; and
- (2) The party representative with authority to settle the matter has reviewed the mediation materials submitted by that party, as well as the materials submitted by opposing parties.

(b) Mediation during an Examiner proceeding is governed by the Uniform Mediation Act, RCW Chapter 7.07. To the extent the Rules are inconsistent with RCW Chapter 7.07, state law governs.

(c) During mediation, prehearing procedures, including but not limited to discovery and motions for dispositive orders, shall continue according to the prehearing order.

4.05 PRIVILEGE

(a) A mediation communication is a statement, whether oral, written, or nonverbal, that occurs during a mediation or is made for purposes of considering, conducting, participating in, initiating, continuing, or reconvening a mediation or retaining a mediator.

(b) A mediation communication is privileged, except as provided by Chapter 7.07 RCW, and is not subject to discovery or admissible in evidence in a proceeding before the Examiner unless the privilege is expressly waived. In any subsequent Hearing Examiner proceeding following a mediation, the following privileges apply:

- (1) A mediation party may refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other person from disclosing, a mediation communication.

- (2) Evidence or information otherwise admissible or subject to discovery does not become inadmissible or protected from discovery solely by reason of its disclosure or use in mediation.

(c) A privilege under subsection (b) of this Rule may be waived in a written agreement or orally during the proceeding if expressly waived by all parties to the mediation and:

- (1) In the case of the privilege of the mediator, it is expressly waived by the mediator.
- (2) In the case of the privilege of a nonparty participant, it is expressly waived by the nonparty participant.
- (3) A person who discloses or makes a representation about a privileged mediation communication that prejudices another person in a proceeding is precluded from asserting a privilege under subsection (b) of this Rule, but only to the extent necessary for the person prejudiced to respond to the representation or disclosure.
- (4) There is no privilege for a mediation communication that is a written agreement signed by all parties to the dispute.

4.06 OUTCOME

(a) When the parties determine mediation is complete, they shall report the outcome of the mediation to the Examiner.

(b) The following applies if agreement is reached as a result of mediation or settlement:

- (1) If the agreement resolves all appeal matters at issue, and calls for case dismissal, the Examiner shall order dismissal upon notification by the parties.
- (2) If the agreement resolves all matters at issue in the appeal and is signed by all parties, but calls for additional action by the Examiner (e.g., the parties may request review of the agreement by the Examiner, or request that the Examiner modify or condition a department decision based on the parties' agreement), the parties shall file the agreement or a stipulation with the Examiner, and the Examiner shall convene a hearing to address the parties' request.
- (3) If the agreement resolves only some matters at issue in the appeal, and calls for dismissal of those issues, the Examiner shall order dismissal of those issues. The hearing process shall resume as if no mediation had occurred with regard to the remaining issues. The agreement on the dismissed issues shall not be used as evidence or proof of anything except that an agreement has been reached, unless all parties signed the agreement and agreed to waive the privilege in writing.
- (4) If the agreement resolves only some matters at issue in the appeal, and calls for additional action by the Examiner, the parties shall file a copy of the agreement or a stipulation with the Examiner, and the Examiner shall convene a hearing to address the parties' request. As to the remaining issues on appeal, the hearing process shall resume as if no mediation had occurred with regard to those remaining issues. The agreement on the dismissed issues shall not be used as evidence or proof of anything except that an agreement has been reached, unless all parties signed the agreement and agreed to waive the privilege in writing.

(c) The following applies if no agreement is reached:

- (1) The hearing process shall resume as if no mediation or settlement discussion had occurred; and
- (2) Information exclusively shared by parties at a mediation may not be used as evidence in the hearing process, unless all parties agree to waive their privilege.
