Independent Contractor Protections Ordinance Fact Sheet

Translated version of this document is available upon request at: (206) 256-5297.

Seattle’s Independent Contractor Protections Ordinance requires covered Hiring Entities to provide Independent Contractors with disclosures prior to entering a contract and at the time of payment. Independent Contractors must be paid on or before the date compensation is due under the terms of a contract, the terms of the pre-contract disclosure, or within 30 days. This law will go into effect on September 1, 2022.

Coverage
Which workers are covered by this law?
An Independent Contractor is a self-employed person that is hired by a Hiring Entity to provide services in exchange for compensation. This law applies to all Independent Contractors with a few exceptions\(^1\) listed below.

Which companies are covered by this law?
This law applies to Hiring Entities regularly engaged in business or commercial activity, including not-for-profit businesses.

Which contracts are covered by this law?
This law covers contracts based on their nature of services and value of services.

---

\(^1\) Independent Contractors not covered by this law are lawyers, situations where an Independent Contractor’s relationship with a Hiring Entity is limited to a property rental agreement (e.g., hair stylist renting booth at a salon), and other Independent Contractors as defined by the Office of Labor Standards Director’s rule. The rule-making process is anticipated to happen in early/mid-2022. Sign up for OLS Newsletter or check OLS website for updates at: www.seattle.gov/laborstandards.

Requirements

Timely Payment Requirements

Hiring Entities must provide “timely payment” to the Independent Contractor under:

1) the terms of the contract;
2) the terms of the pre-contract disclosure; or
3) within 30 days.

Disclosure Requirements

Hiring Entities must provide the following Pre-contract and Time of Payment disclosures to all covered Independent Contractors except Transportation Network Company drivers (e.g. Uber and Lyft drivers). In the coming months, OLS will release templates that Hiring Entities can use to provide this information—check our website here for updates.
