NOTE: Conversion from City of Seattle Datasets to NAVD83 Datasets.
 Discrepancy between City of Seattle and NAVD83 Datasets, see:
 ("City of Seattle Dataset" + 9.76) + NAVD83.
 There are no measurements in the City of Seattle Datasets. The conversion may vary up to +/- 10 in specific areas throughout the City. In areas and applications where a more accurate conversion factor is critical, alternative methods should be checked and vertical relationships between the two datasets be determined for that particular area.
