KATHRYN KELLY – LAURELHURST COMMUNITY CLUB

Ms. Kelly, known to most who know her, is a member of the Board of the Laurelhurst Community Club (LCC). She is the Project Director of the Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders (FASD) Legal Issues Resource Center at the University of Washington's Fetal Alcohol and Drug Unit/Alcohol and Drug Abuse Institute, one of the ten Units of Health Sciences Administration. Her work revolves around training and advocacy on behalf of those living with the brain-based disability (FASD) which can result from prenatal exposure to alcohol.

Ms. Kelly is also an advocate for the development of community engagement, a process in which as many community members as possible join to implement shared goals, foster community participation and thrive through an enhanced sense of belonging.
