Re: Second Partial Certification Memo for Case 2020OPA-0125

OIG Partial Certification Memo

OIG previously issued a partial certification on this case certifying only on the elements of thoroughness and objectivity. OIG was unable to certify the case on timeliness.

Since that initial certification, judicial rulings have been made on evidence previously excluded from the casefile, and OPA has determined the evidence can now be included.

After reviewing the new evidence, OIG has determined it does not change the previous certification. The case is still certified as thorough and objective but not timely.

Respectfully,
