

Connect with the 2026 EJ Fund Consultants!

Get support with your EJ Fund Application! The Environmental Justice Fund Consultants are available to clarify the EJ Fund's funding priorities, discuss project ideas for EJ Fund alignment, and review and provide high-level feedback and edits for draft proposals. Meet the 2026 Consultants below:

Suj'n Chon, MSW (she/her) helps organizations—especially those led by people of the global majority and white-led groups committed to equity—turn their values into action. With over 30 years in nonprofits and government, she advises teams and projects on aligning mission, programs, and operations. She also provides grant-application and capacity-building services for funders and grant programs, including 4Culture, King County Parks, and King County VSHSL.

Nanette Fok is a grant writing consultant working with nonprofit agencies based in the greater Seattle area. She has the privilege of helping to build the capacity and sustainability of organizations that support the health, well-being and empowerment of innumerable community members. She has worked in fundraising and organizational development for over 20 years, with broad-based experience that includes foundation and government grant seeking, grantmaking, individual donor development, special events coordination and strategic planning. She currently sits on the boards of Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience and Mu Films.

Nancy Huizar is a long-time South Seattle resident with leadership experience in environmental justice organizing. Nancy also has experience in writing grants and has served on grant funding committees. They have led campaigns advocating for a Green New Deal in Seattle, accessible green jobs, and healthy communities for all.

Complete the eligibility section of the EJ Fund Application by July 14 to be matched with an EJ Fund Consultant! **Priority will be given to applicants who are new to grantmaking.*
