

2021-22 Youth Basketball Q & A

1. Q: When does registration open?

A: Registration will open on November 16.

2. Q: How do I register for Youth Basketball?

A: Please visit <https://apm.activecommunities.com/seattle/ActiveNet>Login>

3. Q: When will the season begin?

A: Practices will begin on January 3, 2022 and games will kick off on February 5, 2022.

4. Q: When does the season end?

A: April 2-3, 2022.

5. Q: When does practices begin?

A: January 3, 2022.

6. Q: What safety protocols are in place regarding covid-19?

A: All coaches, players, family members and officials are required to have proof of a COVID-19 vaccination or have proof of a negative COVID-19 test that has been taken within 72 hours.

7. Q: As a parent/guardian, am I allowed in the facility for games?

A: Only one ticket will be available for family members to attend games.

8. Q: As a parent/guardian, am I allowed in the facility for practices?

A: No parents are not allowed in the community centers for practices.

9. Q: Will I be required to show a COVID-19 vaccination or a negative test within 72 before entering the facility?

A: Yes.

10. Q: Why are parents not allowed in the games and practices?

A: To limit the spread of Covid-19, no spectators will be allowed in the games and practices.

11. Q: Are masks required?

A: In accordance with Governor Inslee's mask mandate, masks are required at all times while indoors with the exception of participants who are actively participating.

12. Q: Will PPE supplies be available?

A: Yes, PPE supplies will be available at all games and practices.

Seattle
Parks & Recreation

healthy people healthy environment strong communities

13. Q: Is my child allowed to play for more than one team at two different community centers?

A: No, your child can only be registered for one team at one site.

14. Q: Where can I find a copy of the Youth Basketball Safety Guidelines?

A: You can locate that document on the Youth Sports webpage
<http://www.seattle.gov/parks/find/city-wide-youth-sports>

Seattle
Parks & Recreation

healthy people healthy environment strong communities