SEASONAL CAR PROWL PREVENTION

LOCAL

These are the car prowler hotspots during the holidays, Seattle police say

Car prowls on the rise in West Seattle; Seattle Police offering prevention tips

Tue, 11/27/2018

KEY TIPS

- Do not leave any valuables in plain sight.
- Remove or hide anything that a car prowler might mistake as something worth stealing.
- If valuables must be left behind, hide them out of sight several blocks away before parking.
- Disable internal trunk releases per your owner's instruction manual.
- Audible alarms or other theft deterrent devices can be effective.
- Remote controls for garages should never be left inside parked vehicles.

Don't Let Grinches Ruin Your Holiday Shopping Season

Written by Public Affairs on November 21, 2018 10:10 am

If you'll be out shopping on Black Friday or F5-ing your way through Cyber Monday, please be mindful that this is also a busy season for car prowlers and package thieves.

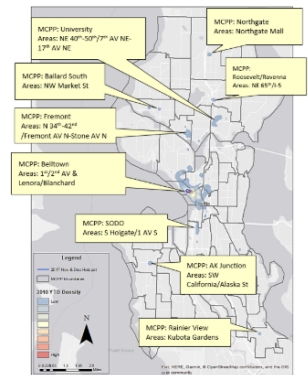

SPD's Crime Analysis Unit has identified the spots most heavily-targeted by prowlers during last year's holiday shopping season, and while the department will have officers patrolling these areas, you can also help us make things harder for thieves.

IRL shoppers: never leave anything of value in your vehicle, even if it's just for a minute, and park in well-lit areas. Read more about car prowler prevention here.

If you're ordering online, have your package delivered, have it sent to a secure location whenever possible.

You can also read more about securing your home and how SPD investigates mail theft and other property crimes here.
