V. Received Public Comment Acknowledgement

VI. Public Comment

- No one from community was present for this first agenda item for public comment. The commission noted that there will always be time made for public comment at the beginning and end of these meetings.

VII. Conflict of Interest Disclosure

- No conflicts of interest were disclosed at this time by Redistricting Commissioners.
- Department of Neighborhoods staff Elsa Batres-Boni noted that staff from Theresa Mosqueda’s office spoke with her to get an overview of the redistricting process and what kind of involvement they can have in the process. Elsa informed staff that they can participate by listening and watching meetings, and by encouraging folks in the city to participate in the process.

VIII. Public Forum Review

- Commissioners noted that they would like to add a component to the meetings that allows for the public to use a large map or to have a live editing document from the Districting GIS Consultants for folks who want to express their preferences in a visual format.

IX. Public Forum Prep

- Commissioners discussed potentially increasing the amount of time that community members can provide public comment as needed at the forums in the spirit of cooperation, specifically for individuals who are using interpretation or may be speaking through maps.

X. Open District lines options conversation

- Commissioners discussed the different map options and challenges they have encounter while working with the GIS consulting team on the interactive mapping too. Commissioner O’Sullivan shared an option map that included public comments submitted by Public Forum District 2 attendees, keeping Beacon Hill and the Chinatown International District and Little Saigon in District 2. Commissioner O’Sullivan noted that there was a challenge in adding Yesler Terrace to District 2, as the number of people in that district neared its limit and ultimately the only way to include Yesler Terrace would be to cut into the Mount Baker area.
- This agenda item will be added to all future agendas, so that the commission can workshop where to put district lines and process feedback from the public forums in real-time to narrow down options.

XI. Next meetings

- The next regular meeting will be on June 7th, 2022, from 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM
- The next meeting of the commission will be at the district 3 Public Forum at Garfield Community Center at 2323 E Cherry St, Seattle, WA 98122 on June 2nd, 2022, from 5:30PM – 7:30PM. Commissioner Neelima Shah will be giving this community the overview presentation on redistricting prior to the public comment period.
