

How to Care for Your Planter

Prune plants as needed to maintain visibility

Keep planters free of garbage and weeds

Tank overflow is a small hole on the side of the planter. Check to see that it not clogged.

Adding a layer of mulch will help to prevent weeds from taking hold

Fill tank (50 gallon) with water when weather is hot and dry (usually June - September)

