This is a statewide initiative created to promote policies and practices that enhance support and justice for people experiencing commercial sexual exploitation – or prostitution. Our diverse leadership team consists of various professionals with direct services, research, and advocacy experience, and who are representative of communities most impacted by CSE including survivors of CSE. We would love for the Seattle Women's Commission to join WASE Forward as a partner and to support our advocacy in Olympia on behalf of sex trafficking and sexual exploitation survivors in Washington. Here's our website, so you can	T. Yasu
