

SEATTLE WOMEN'S COMMISSION

WEEKLY REPORT FOR: June 11-18, 2014

All Committees: Violence Prevention, Housing and Homelessness, Economic Opportunities and Health Disparities

	Work Plan items (Status of work plan items, what is completed, issues & updates)	Events/Forums (events or forums planned and any collaboration with community or other Commissions)	Meetings (any meetings with the community, media relations, department heads, City Council Members/staff or Mayor/staff)	Policy Issues (any policy items you are working on)	Emerging issues (anything we need to know or be aware of that is not in the report)	Other Items (Things you want the Mayor to be aware of looking forward to future issues)
HEALTH DISPARITIES
			Clarissa - Met with the Workforce Development Council		Clarissa- Exploring opportunities to develop strategic plan for adolescent wellness
VIOLENCE PREVENTION
		Maha - June 13th- Attended a Justice for Janitors Rally in June 9 th	Maha - Hosted by: OneAmerica, Road Map ELL Work Group, and Education Northwest Attendees included: 10 state senators and reps and educators from across the state. Bilingual and Biliterate in Washington State: Celebrating Success and Looking Forward Monday, June 9th 10:30am-12:30pm (please arrive by 10:15am*) Kent School District Administrative Office Boardroom 12033 SE 256th Street, Kent, WA 98030 (Tour of Scenic Hill Elementary to follow at noon)	Bridgette – Presented on Elder Abuse at the June SWC meeting
HOUSING & HOMELESSNESS
	1. Nicki spoke again with Rebecca Roy of SKCCH about the application to convert the Federal Reserve Bank Building into a hub for services for people experiencing homelessness. She invited the other members of the H&H		1. Morgan attended the Chamber policy council monthly meeting on Tuesday morning and there was a GREAT brief by Diane M. Sugimura, Director, City of Seattle, Department of Planning and Development. Will committee to the events SKCCH is holding about this project in the next couple of weeks, and she made plans to volunteer at the event this Thursday.		reach out to liaison for the upcoming rental building inspections process.

	2. Committee members are scheduling meetings with the Tenants Union to discuss Fair Tenant Screening Act education and outreach.
	3. Morgan is reaching out to Capitol Hill Housing for an informational meeting.

ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITIES

	1) Wendy is emailing with the gender equity task force participants regarding attending our next meeting and collaboration. 2)Wendy is emailing with the Seattle Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce WIBLI team (including Maud Daudon) regarding gender equity collaboration and attending our next meeting. 3)Wendy obtained research from the CDC regarding long term economic impact of sexual assault.	1) Liz is emailing with Seattle Public Library staff about potentially hosting an event at the Central branch. 2) Morgan attended the King County Women's Advisory Board event regarding family friendly workplace policies and the gender equity with Councilmember Dembowski and other panelists. 3)Lili is attending the panel held by the Seattle Human Rights Commission "Two Fish Too Many: The Implications of a Low Fish Consumption Rate."	1)Liz, Wendy, Mercedes, Clarissa, Lili, and Morgan attended a breakfast with the Workforce Development Council of Seattle-King County. Wendy is emailing with their staff regarding collaboration and attending our next EO focused meeting. 2) Liz attended "Library Town Hall: Supporting Start-Ups and Investing in the Community" 3) Morgan attended the Seattle Chamber's monthly Policy Council meeting where city zoning and affordable housing was discussed and a presentation by ethnic chamber representatives. 4)Morgan is attending Crosscut's Community Idea Lab focusing on the technology sector and ideas for Seattle on 6/18 at Town Hall.
	Wendy initiated the updating of the commission contact list.					