

SEATTLE WOMEN'S COMMISSION

WEEKLY REPORT FOR: June 25- July 2, 2014

All Committees: Violence Prevention, Housing and Homelessness, Economic Opportunities and Health Disparities

|                                   | Work Plan items(Status of work plan items, what is completed, issues &amp; updates)                                   | Events/Forums(events or forums planned and any collaboration with community or other Commissions) | Meetings (any meetings with the community, media relations, department heads, City Council Members/staff or Mayor/staff)                      | Policy Issues(any policy items you are working on) | Emerging issues(anything we need to know or be aware of that is not in the report)             | Other Items(Things you want the Mayor to be aware of looking forward to future issues) |
|-----------------------------------|---|---|--|--|--|--|
| HEALTH DISPARITIES         |   |   |  |  |  |  |
|                                   |   |   |  |  | Clarissa - met with King County public health nurse to discuss recent closures of maternal health clinics. |  |
| VIOLENCE PREVENTION        |   |   |  |  |  |  |
|                                   |   |   |  |  |  |  |
| HOUSING &amp; HOMELESSNESS |   |   |  |  |  |  |
|                                   | 1. Alison checked in with housing and homelessness counterparts on other commissions about next steps in working collaboratively. |   | 1. Nicki made plans this week to collaborate with a group of youth doing an internship with the YMCA to do a workshop on accessing local government. |  |  |  |

| ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITIES |  |  |   |  |  |  |
|------------------------|--|--|---|--|--|--|
|                        | 1) Morgan completed basic website updates and sent to Pablo at City IT to complete the updates. | 1) Liz emailed contacts at the Technology Access Foundation and Seattle Public Library re: youth hackathon event support 2) Liz is meeting with of the organizers of Hack to End Homelessness to talk about the logistics of the youth hackathon/gather resources. | 1) Wendy met with CM Godden and Monica Ghosh to discuss the Jeannette Williams Award, outreach to the business community, and impact of violence (DV/SA) on gender equity. 2) Lili organized and attended a film screening &amp; discussion with director Miho Aida of the film of The Sacred Place Where Life Begins: Gwich'in Women Speak which focuses on the role that the women of the Gwich'in tribe in Alaska have played in grassroots organizing to protect and conserve the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge. 3) Lili attended A Vision for the Urban Indian Community, a community report of an assessment of opportunities and assets of the Seattle-King County urban Indian population. 4) Lili is organizing a networking event with the Seattle Chapter of Environmental Professionals of Color to connect Seattle community members who are interested in a diverse, equitable, and inclusive environmental movement. Event will be July 17th 4-7 at Long Provincial. |  |  |  |