Seattle Housing Authority

Digital Equity Resources

Digital Navigators

Seven digital navigators + supervisor

Responsibilities:

- Laptop and/or iPad distribution with one-on-one instruction

- Register SHA residents for the SHA Portal and teach portal navigation

- Teach specialized classes such as coding and filmmaking

- Assisted residents with Affordable Connectivity Program enrollment

- Once ACP ended then assisted with low-cost internet options

- Taught Seattle Public Schools online portal navigation

Desktop Computer Labs

Seven desktop computer labs

- Printer and wi-fi at each location

- All computers have Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, and Excel

- One computer lab (STAR Center) specially designed for people with disabilities

Available for (but not limited to) open lab, classes, and workshops

Previous class activities

- Basic computer skills, photography, career readiness, and youth tutoring

Mobile Computer Labs

Seven charging stations + MacBooks

Up to twenty laptops and five iPads at each station

All computers have Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, and Excel

Devices can be brought to locations without a permanent computer lab

Previous class activities

Basic computer skills, ESOL, coding for youth, filmmaking, SHA Portal

More information at Technology training | Seattle Housing Authority

Contact Information

Asfaha Lemlem – Digital Equity Coordinator
206-837-7005   asfaha.lemlem@seattlehousing.org

William Green – Computer Lab & Volunteer Coordinator
206-837-7009   william.green@seattlehousing.org

Seattle HOUSING AUTHORITY